Letter—from J. B. BRUNYATE, Esq., Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education).
 To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
 Dated—Simla, the 3rd July 1905.
 No.—444.

I am directed to state, for the information of the Governor in Council, that the Government of India have recently had under consideration the general question of the position of the female inspecting staff of the educational services as regards the travelling allowance rules and they have decided for the purposes of these rules—

(a) that all inspectresses whether of the Indian or the Provincial Educational service shall be classified as first-class officers; and

(b) that all female inspecting officers of lower rank than inspectresses shall be classified as second-class officers.

Order—No. 478, Educational, dated 12th July 1905.

The Director of Public Instruction is informed that the Government of India have decided for the purposes of the travelling allowance rules—

(a) that all inspectresses whether of the Indian or the Provincial Educational service shall be classified as first-class officers; and

(b) that all female inspecting officers of lower rank than inspectresses shall be classified as second-class officers.
