Educational qualifications.

Informing the Roman Catholic of the that his request in regard to the qualifications of the European members of the "Society of Foreign Missions of Milan" is equal to those of trained licentiates in Sacking, will receive no consideration
 if his schools of that branch are located in British territory.

Hyderabad Sec 15 May 1905

Honourable Sir,

I beg to submit to you the following Petition to have the European members of the "Society for Foreign Missions of Milan" ranked as equal to "trained bachelors in teaching" when certified to have completed the course of studies prescribed to them.

The reasons for my application are

- 1st That such recognition, for several years granted only to the members of the "Society of Jesus," was in 1901 extended to the European members of the "St. Joseph's Society, Mill Hill," and more recently to the members of the "Society for Foreign Missions of Paris"
- 2^d That the Ecclesiastical Seminaries of northern Italy, in which the members of the Society for Foreign Missions of Milan make their studies, strictly follow the Government curriculum, with the exception of theology, which is not taught in Govt Universities; and that they enjoy a well deserved reputation for the standard of their studies and for the fitness of their teaching staff. The course of course of our classical, scientific, philosophical and theological studies alone is of 12 years.

3^d That although the greater part of the Diocese of Hyderabad is in the Nizam's territory, a good portion of it is in British territory (the Krishna St.), and even in the Nizam's territory our schools are aggregated to and follow the Rules of the Madras University.

I beg to submit a specimen of the certificates of studies we get from our Seminaries, which if found satisfactory, I hope you will grant our petition

In returning Government Endorsement No. 290, Educational, dated 20th May 1905 on Current No. 944, I have the honour to state that there are no Colleges or Secondary Schools in the Kistna or Guntur District under the Roman Catholic Mission which are likely to be affected, and that there appears to be no necessity for investigating the question whether the qualifications of the members of the Society for Foreign Missions of Milan warrant their being ranked equal to those of trained Licentiates in teaching.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E. W. Middlehurst

SUBJECT.

Regarding the qualifications of the European members of the Society of Foreign Missions of Milan.

In his letter of the 15th May 1905 the Catholic Bishop of Hyderabad requested that the European members of the "Society for Foreign Missions of Milan" might be ranked as equal to "trained — licentiates in teaching" who are certified to have completed the Course of studies prescribed to them. The D.P.O. to whom this letter was referred for remarks states that there are no Colleges or Secondary Schools in the Kistna or Gunter District under the Roman Catholic Mission which are likely to be affected & that there appears to be no necessity for investigating the question. For orders as to whether the Catholic Bishop may be informed accordingly.

One of the padres has written to me about this — in Italian, so I don't put the letter up. He observes: "We have here at Hyderabad a High School which, in time, we want to get approved as a Second Grade."

College affiliated to the University of Madras, without counting other schools scattered throughout our Mission field which extends into British territory. We are hampered by not being recognised as equal to trained licentiates in teaching for want of Gov^t diplomas as our theological course which takes the place of a university course and follows a complete secondary course is not allowed to count.

He goes on to say that the concession has been made to various other R. Catholic bodies, whose course of studies in their seminaries is much the same, that their course is at least as advanced as that of the Madras University; and asks me to explain to the authorities what the usual courses of instruction in Italy are. - It will be seen from the certificate which accompanies the current that "studia omnia quae pro gymnasio et lyceis in regno Italico tradenda praeferuntur" are completed and that the courses of the gymnasium and the lyceum are followed by a course in philosophy and Theology.

2. The course in the classical gymnasium in (lower secondary schools) in Italy lasts five years; the course in the upper-secondary schools or lyceum three years. The timetable is as follows.

Boys in Italy learn school with a good knowledge of Italian and Latin literature; their Greek is usually very weak, their mathematics, philosophy etc a mere smattering.

In the teaching of the classics stress is laid on much reading of ~~the~~ the ancient writers; the professors are not encouraged to indulge in philological and linguistic divergations; so much reading of texts is prescribed that there is not time left to waste on various readings, peculiarities of grammar and the other minutiae with which teachers in England stuff their boys.

Philosophy is taken up in the three years course of the Lyceum. The first year is given to the elements of psychology, the second to formal logic, the third to moral philosophy.

In Mathematics boys in the classical schools do not get beyond elementary algebra.

geometry and trigonometry.

Physics, chemistry and natural history means a smattering of all the sciences from acoustics to geology, but a solid knowledge of none of them.

The above will show what is meant by claiming to have completed the full gymnasial and lyceal courses.

The seminaries in which the pupils studied are not public schools and have not to conform with the courses laid down for public schools. But I suppose we may accept the statement that they do so.

In any case the Italian law ~~regulates~~ subjects them (1) to inspection by Gov^t inspectors (2) to the rules ~~for~~ laying down minimum qualifications of teachers in force in Gov^t schools.

Submitted to the Bishop.

may be told the Gov^t are in doubt as to what the object of his application is inasmuch as they understand that (1) the Mission possesses no High Schools in British Territory (2) the Mission possesses no College anywhere which it might wish to have affiliated to the Madras University; and that if his object is to start High Schools in British Territory
 his request will receive due consideration; while if his object is to raise the present High School at Hyderabad to a Second-Grade College, the question of the qualifications of the teachers is one for the University, not for Gov^t
