Ootacamund

Sir,

In submitting herewith a memorial from G.Venkatranga Central Nazir of this Court, I have the honor to state that ^{as his} is a very hard case His Excellency the Governor in Council may be graciously pleased to exempt him from passing the Criminal Lower Test in order to enable him to hold the post of Head Clerk in a District Court. I have known him from September 1896 and have been satisfied with his work. He will make an efficient Head Clerk for which he is well qualified and seeing that the concession he had asked in November 1900 viz., that he might be permitted to appear for the test though he had not passed the First in Arts examination, had been refused by Government, I respectfully venture to recommend that the exemption he craves for might be granted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

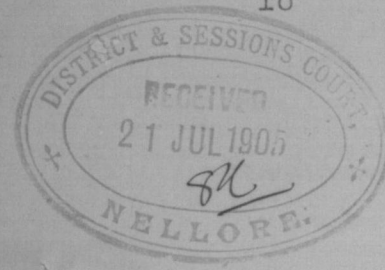

Your most obedient servant,

K. S. Srinivasulu
District Judge.

Vice copy of the Letter No. 192-8/16-11-00
annexed.
G. 8240-654/1900?
8/17-12-00

To

His Excellency the Governor in Council,
Fort Saint George,
Madras.

The humble memorial of G.Venkatranga, Central Nazir, District Court, Nellore,

Most Humbly Showeth:-

1. That the Memorialist is 36 years of age and has been holding the office of the Central Nazir, District Court, Nellore, since January 1900 and his pay is Rs.60 a month. He has a total service of about 18 years, having been entertained in 1887. He was also Head Clerk, District Munsif's Courts for nearly 3 years. He has also acted as Translator of the Sessions Court, Nellore, on a salary of Rs.75 for nearly a year, and has been also doing the duties of the Head Clerk of the District Court
2. That your Excellency's petitioner has passed Matricula-tion and also the undermentioned special tests:-
 - (1) Translation Lower, Telugu.
 - (2) Translation Higher, Telugu.
 - (3) Civil Judicial Test (New Test).
 - (4) Precise Writing, Higher.
3. That not having passed F.A. examination which is one of the Educational Tests prescribed by the Government for appearing for the Criminal Test, Lower Grade which is necessary for the office of the Head Clerk in a District Court the petitioner has not been able to pass that examination.
4. That in July 1893, the last year open to Matriculates to appear for Criminal Test Lower, your Excellency's petitioner sent in his application for the Criminal Test Lower Grade; but, owing to some misfortune, the application did not reach the Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations, and he was not allowed to appear for the examination, though the fee paid by him into the treasury, was ordered to be refunded.

5. That on 13th November 1900 the District and Sessions Judge, Nellore, was pleased to recommend the petitioner's prayer to appear for Criminal Test, Lower, without passing F.A. Examination remarking inter alia that, "Though only a Matriculate he (the petitioner) is quite as good as an average Graduate, and he is very efficient in his work"; but the Government was not pleased to grant his prayer. (Vide G.O.No.654 dated 17th December 1900, Educational). G

6. That on the 7th March 1901, V.Venugopala Chetty Esquire, acting District and Sessions Judge, Nellore, was pleased to leave on record the following:-

"I found G.Venkatrangan's work as acting Translator, very good during my acting period as Judge of Nellore. It is of a very high order. He is quite capable of discharging the duties of a more responsible office, and it is hard that, for not having passed the Criminal, Lower Test, he should be debarred from promotion. I trust he will renew his application and hope it will be favourably viewed by the Government."

7. That owing to the heavy work in the Nazir's establishment since 1902, the petitioner has had no time to attend to anything but Court business and he has tried his best to work very hard and please his superiors.

8. That the examinations he has passed qualify him for Sheristadar's place in a Subordinate Judge's Court, and the Head Clerk's place in the City Civil Court, Madras, which carry the same pay as that of the Head Clerk of a District Court.

9. That the Head Clerk's place in the District Court, Nellore, is likely to fall vacant in the near future and the petitioner cannot get it as he has not passed the Criminal Test, Lower, in spite of his hard and honest work and the general satisfaction he has given.

10. That the petitioner begs to enclose copies of testimonials he has earned from his superiors (G.F.T.Power Esquire, District and Sessions Judge, M.R.Ry. T.Ramachendra Rao Pantulu Garu, late Subordinate Judge and other offices) showing his intelligence and capacity for work.

11. That the petitioner, therefore, ventures to approach your Excellency with the humble prayer that, under the circumstances above stated, your Excellency will be pleased to exempt the petitioner from passing the Criminal Test, Lower Grade, so far as the Head Clerk's place in a District Court, is concerned even if your Excellency is not pleased to exempt him altogether from passing Criminal Test, Lower.

For which act of kindness and justice the memorialist shall as in duty bound, ever pray.

Swaminathan

Central Nazir, District Court

To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Judicial Department,

Sir,

I have the honor to submit for the favourable consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council a memorial submitted by G. Venkatramam, acting Translator of this Court. Though only a Matriculate he is quite as good as an average Graduate and is very efficient in work. But for the defect that he has not passed the Criminal Judicial Test his qualifications are such as are sure to secure him in course of time the highest ministerial appointments in the District Court and seeing that he has already risen to the acting Translator's place by dint of honest and efficient work, the indulgence he craves at the hands of Government may I respectfully venture to submit be extended to him.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

No. I.

Extract from letter No. 715, dated 11th December 1888, addressed by the District Munsif of Nellore to the District Judge, Nellore.

2. My third Process Writer, G. Venkatarangam, is a Matriculate and is a very efficient hand. I would have given him the Acting 3rd Clerk's place, but for the claims of his seniors. I would strongly recommend that he should be given promotion in filling up the place of Krishnadoss at Kavali.

(Sd.) T. RAMACHENDRA ROW,
District Munsif.

No. II.

G. Venkatarangam has, as Deputy Nazir and 3rd Clerk, given me entire-satisfaction in the discharge of his duties. As Deputy Nazir he showed his talents of organisation and his subordinates worked under him with a willing mind. He is intelligent, diligent, and industrious. With all these qualifications he has a good name for honesty. I wish him speedy success in life.

(Sd.) R. ETHIRAJULU NAIDU,
6th April 1891. Ag. District Munsif, Kanigiri.

No. III.

Extract from letter No. 398, dated 22nd July 1891, addressed by M. R. Ry. T. Ramachandra Rau Garu, B.A., B.L., District Munsif of Kanigiri to the District Judge, Nellore.

My Deputy Nazir Mutharazu Venkatakrishnayya (pay Rs. 25) and my 3rd Clerk Gattupalli Venkatarangam (pay Rs. 20) having asked me to recommend their transfer to Nellore, I have the honor to bring their claims to the notice of the District Court.

2. Venkatakrishnayya has a service of nearly 6 years and Venkatarangam a service of nearly 4 years. The former has been working under me ever since I joined the District in February 1887, and the latter ever since he entered the service. Both write an excellent hand in English and Telugu, and have proved themselves to be first-rate hands by their intelligence, industry, willingness to work, and general good behaviour. Without the help of these men and one or two others, I would not have been able to organize the work of this new Court so soon and as satisfactorily as I have been able to do.

3. Their experience of all kinds of work in the District Munsif's Courts, will, I consider, render their services very useful in the District Court, and I can recommend with some confidence that their cases may be taken into favourable consideration when there are vacancies in the District Court on higher, or at least, equal pay.

4. Venkatakrishnayya has twice acted as Head Clerk of this Court and Venkatarangam twice as Deputy Nazir. The District Court is not also unaware of their qualifications.

No. IV.

Extract from a letter dated 4th November 1891, addressed by M. R. Ry. R. Ethirajulu Nayudu Garu, B. A. B. L., Acting District Munsif, Kanigiri, to the District Judge Nellore.

The prospects of promotion and the due recognition of services by superiors tended to a very great extent to keep the establishment beyond the reaches of baneful influences of dishonesty and corruption. Proper encouragements offered to the Clerks of the establishment had really kept them away from temptations of all kinds and gave them the impetus to vie with each other in the disposal of a great deal of work and that intelligently. By acts of honesty and intelligence my establishment had the fortune of gaining the name of "Model Court" from you. That it still deserves that name cannot be disputed and in my opinion it well deserves that word of encouragement. The death of K. Rangacharlu has given me the best opportunity of my appreciating the good services of the establishment in the manner it deserves. The arrangements were made by me after giving a very careful consideration to the claims of each and every one on the establishment and I have not ignored those of any clerk that is worthy of promotion. The permanent Munsif Mr. T. Ramachandra Rau, has carefully weighed the merits of the Clerks on the establishment and gave them promotions as they deserved. The District Court is fully aware of these facts. I cannot better describe the qualifications of my Ag. Head Clerk and Ag. Deputy Nazir than in the words of Mr. T. Ramachandra Rau in his letter No. 398, dated 22nd July 1891. Paras 2 and 3 of this letter run as follows (Vide, paras 2 and 3 of No. III supra).

These two young men well merit the appointments of Head Clerk and Deputy Nazir for the reasons given by Mr. T. Ramachandra Rau Garu in the above letter and I, with greater force, endorse the opinions of that gentleman about them. It is my request that merit should not go unrewarded.

I lay the claims of M. Venkatakrishnayya and Venkatarangam for the permanent appointments of Head Clerk and Deputy Nazir of my Court with a fervent hope that they may receive your sanction and approval. In brief, I say, I am not over-rating their claims to these appointments and the claim of longer service must necessarily give way to intelligence and industry coupled with honesty.

No. V.

Extract from a letter from Mr. T. Ramachandra Rau, dated 15th February 1892.

I have yet to see subordinates with whom I have had more reason to be satisfied in every way than yourselves.

VI.

G. Venkatarangam was my Deputy Nazir and was on my recommendation transferred to the establishment of the District Court, Nellore. I cannot speak too highly of his capacity to do work of any kind in the Judicial Department, ministerial branch. He is very obedient and always does work cheerfully. His knowledge of English is good. He deserves to be made a Head-Clerk in a District Munsif's Court especially as he is a trustworthy public servant.

The unhealthy climate of Kanigiri has affected his health very much as it has done in the case of several other hard-working Clerks.

NELLORE,
16th March 1896,

(Signed) G. RUNGA RAU,
District Munsif.

No. VII.

G. Venkatarangam, at present permanent Deputy Nazir of the Kanigiri Munsif's Court, and acting as 4th Clerk of the District Court is a very good Clerk. He is intelligent and works hard and willingly and writes a very good hand. He has been very well spoken of by the Munsifs under whom he has served and from what I have seen of him I consider that he deserves the praise they had given him. He deserves to be promoted when opportunity arises, and he has if promotion is not immediately possible, a strong claim to be transferred permanently to Nellore from Kanigiri where he has served more than five years.

(Sd.) G. F. T. POWER,
District Judge.

NELLORE,—11th Sept. 1896.

No. VIII.

Extract from letter No. 180, dated 30th July 1897 addressed by M. R. Ry. T. Swami Aiyar Avarghal B.A., District Munsif, Ongole, to the District Judge, Nellore.

R. Venkata Rau, Head Clerk of this Court, having applied for leave on forfeiture of full pay (Rs. 50) for a period of 12 months in continuation of his leave on Medical Certificate I have, subject to your approval granted him the same under Art 372, Civil Service Regulations, on continuance of the existing arrangement; but.....it appears that the District Court seems to think that the present Acting Head-Clerk (G. Venkatarangam) ought not to continue.

* * *

In order that G. Venkatarangam should not suffer in the reputation he has already earned for good work from more worthy officers than myself, if he should be asked to go back, I think it my duty to add that during the short time he worked under me he has proved himself thoroughly deserving of all
