G.O., No. 391, Educational, dated 8th June 1905.

ABSTRACT.—Requesting sanction of the Government of India to the raising of the pay of the appointment of Second Assistant, Educational and Legislative section of the Secretariat, from Rs. 200—10—250 to Rs. 200—20—300 a month and to permit Mr. P.T. Tharyan, the present incumbent, to draw the maximum pay of the appointment together with a personal allowance of Rs. 50 a month with retrospective effect from 1st April 1905.

II

Letter—from H. A. STUART, Esq., C.S.I., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Establishments).

To—the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Dated—the 28th July 1905.

No.—777.

In reply to your letter No. 391, Educational, dated the 8th June 1905, I am directed to say that, in the circumstances explained, the Government of India accept the proposals (1) that the pay of the appointment of Second Assistant, Educational and Legislative sections of the Madras Secretariat, should be raised from Rs. 200—10—250 to Rs. 200—20—300 a month; and (2) that M.R.Ry. P. T. Tharyan, the present incumbent, should be permitted to draw at once the new maximum pay of the appointment together with a personal allowance of Rs. 50 a month.

3. The Government of India regret that they are unable to accept the recommendation of the Governor in Council that Mr. Tharyan should be granted a salary of Rs. 350 a month with effect from the 1st April 1905. As the Governor in Council is aware they have made it a rule not to allow sanctions of this nature to have retrospective effect and they do not consider that the circumstances of the present case are so special as to justify a departure from the general principle.

Order—No. 541, Educational, dated 8th August 1905.

The Accountant-General is informed that the Government of India have sanctioned the following proposals of this Government:—

(1) that the pay of the appointment of Second Assistant, Educational and Legislative sections of the Madras Secretariat should be raised from Rs. 200—10—250 to Rs. 200—20—300 a month;

(2) that Mr. P. T. Tharyan, the present incumbent, should be permitted to draw at once the new maximum pay of the appointment together with a personal allowance of Rs. 50 a month.

2. Under article 292 of the Civil Account Code the above sanction takes effect from the 28th of July 1905, the date of the orders of the Government of India conveying the sanction.

3. Funds for meeting the extra charge will be separately provided by re-appropriation.
