To,

Through

The

Collector of Bellary

Honored Sir,

The humble petition of
R. Chintappa Head clerk Taluq Office
Kudliji most respectfully sheweth:—

1 Revenue Test Lower Grade

2 Precise writing Test
Higher Grade

3 Translation Test
Higher Grade

I That the petitioner has been serving in the Revenue Department for the past 15 years, that he has been a Head clerk of hard worked Taluq Offices of Hosur and Kudliji for the past 9 years and that he has passed the marginally noted Special tests.

II That he has yet to pass the Account test to make himself Eligible for a Revenue Inspector's post.

III. That unfortunately he is not permitted to appear for the test

4
having passed only the Middle School Examination in the first class.

IV. That the petitioner could not avail himself of the opportunity offered prior to the present rules when he could have passed, owing to hard work in the Valuer Office of which the Government is aware.

V That the petitioner begs to state that the duties of a Head clerk are more onerous and difficult than those of others and especially the position of a Head clerk in the Kundli Valuer deserves special consideration on account of the bad reputation which the Valuer bears of its being always sickly and most backward in point of Education. Passed men do not generally take up appointments in this Valuer. Some clerk or other is always on the sick list and the petitioner has to look after the work of other clerks who are either unemployed men or not up to the mark. Consequently a major portion of the work in the Valuer office falls upon the petitioner. The work in the Kundli Valuer is known to be very heavy in the Bellary District. More than 25 months have elapsed since the petitioner joined the Kundli Valuer Office. There is not even a single day in which the petitioner stopped at home for at least 2 hours in the early morning. The mail time is fixed at a most inconvenient hour at 10 A.M. It is but quite necessary for the petitioner to attend the office in the early morning for the despatch of Emergent business from 6 A.M. to 10 A.M. and again from 11 A.M. to 7 or 8 P.M.:-

VI Besides the ordinary duties devolving on the Head clerk the petitioner has to attend to some of the special duties which occupied much of the petitioner's time. Having had so much work to do the humble petitioner had scarcely any time for sleep and much less for his study.

VII It is more than a decade and a half since the petitioner entered the service of Government and he has been rendering an honest and faithful service which fact will be testified to by the Superiors under whom he has been working. His service as a Head clerk in the hard worked Valuer offices of Aspet and Kundli for a period which extends to 9 years has hampered all prospects of promotion on account of the single draw back in him - viz - his failure to pass the "Account test". The petitioner's success in the other three tests noted in the margin of para 2 supra has further been rendered useless on account of this draw-back.

VIII In Consideration of the petitioner's honest and long service he prays that he may be shown a concession by permitting him to appear for the Account test.

IX In Conclusion the Concession will be a boon to the poor petitioner who will be ever grateful.

The petitioner begs to remain
Honored Sir
Your most obedient servant

Submitted for very favorable Consideration. The applicant is a very useful & capable clerk & his knowledge of Sanskrit work is excellent. He never judges to do any amount of work & his willingness on his part seems to have spoiled his prospects. His drafts are always full, clear & intelligent. He deserves encouragement.
