EXAMINER, P. W. ACCOUNTS. 6-JUL 1905 No.....

To

His Excellency

The Right Honourable

Arthur Oliver Villiers Baron Ampthill, G.C.I.E.,

Governor of Madras.

EXAMINER, P. W. ACCOUNTS. 28 JUL 1905 No.....
--

Petition of Thomas Jervis.

Humbly Sheweth:-

That in April 1902 the Petitioner addressed Your Excellency putting forward his claim for an exemption from the Precis-Writing Examination, on account of the long and faithful services rendered by his late father for over 40 years in the service of Government, in the early days of the P.W.D., and by his late brother for 15 years in the P.W.D. subsequently. The petition was disposed of in G.O. No. 281 Educational dated 9th. May 1902 communicated with G.O. No. 1564-W., dated 28th, May 1902

May 2.

Petitioner again pleads for an exemption and begs to bring to the kind notice of your Excellency that he has been employed as clerk in the Office of Examiner, P.W. Accounts, Madras, for a period of 15 years and that since his enlistment in that service he has been placed in a Branch of that office where he has tried to render good service.

Petitioner also begs to state that he is now advanced in age with a family and in consideration of the fact that his father, brother and himself have served Government --- faithfully for many years he has some claim upon the Government and begs that Government will be kindly pleased, as an exceptional case, to grant him his request, as Petitioner's case is one that requires the consideration of the Government and he hopes that Government will see their way to grant him his request, but if Government is not disposed to exempt Petitioner

Mr. T. Jervis, Clerk, Examiner's Office.

Forwards a petition from ----- for exemption from Precis Test.

No. 787 4/6

Station Madras. Dated the 13th July 1905.

From (Name) A.H. Wollaston, Esqr.,

(Designation) Offg. Examiner, P.W. Accounts, Madras and Coorg.

To ~~The Chief Engineer~~
The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department.

Sir,

The petition contains two prayers:-

- (a) That Mr. Jervis may be exempted from the Precis Writing Test, or alternatively
- (b) that he might be permitted to present himself for that Test.

2. The first prayer is in the same terms as one submitted by him in 1902 and then negatived (vide G.O. No. 1564-W., dated 28th May 1902). Mr. Jervis does not I fear make out any case for a reconsideration of the orders already passed..

3. The second prayer relates to the order

passed in 1900 under which men who had passed only the General Test were allowed 5 years from 1897 in which to pass

the Special Test Examinations. Mr. Jervis has passed the General Test but not the Precis Test and as the period allowed has now elpsed, he prays that this order may be relaxed so far as to enable him to appear for the Special Test now.

4. In view of Mr. Jervis' satisfactory service of 15 years in this office, and of the circumstance that his father and brother were faithful servants of Government, I forward his petition for favourable consideration.

Please say whether Mr. Jervis availed himself of the concession referred to in para 3 of your note above. If not, why not?
If he did, information should be furnished as to the year in which he appeared for the Precis writing test.

CN: 6770 { Petition from Mr. J. Jervis, clerk, Office of the Examiner of P.W. accounts, dt 4th July 1905 Endorsement thereon by the Examiner, P.W.A. No. 787 A/2. dt 13th July 1905.

Office note to the Examiner, P.W. accounts, No. 4300C, dated 27th July 1905.

CN: 7327. Office note from the Examiner, P.W.A. No. 80C 831.7.05

For the Secretary

Mr. J. Jervis, a clerk in the Office of the Examiner of P.W. accounts requested in 1902 that he might be exempted from passing the Precise writing test so as to enable him to be promoted to appointments carrying a salary of ^{not less than} £60 per mensem. The Government were, however, not prepared to comply with the petitioner's request. vide G.O. No. 281, Educational, dated 9th May 1902.

The clerk now requests a reconsideration of the G.O. referred to above, but, as pointed out by the Examiner himself, he has not made out any case for a reconsideration of the orders already passed.

The petitioner makes ^{also} an alternative request that, if Government are not disposed to exempt him from passing the test, he may at least be permitted to appear for

for the Examination.

Under article 4 of the Government Special Tests Examinations Notification, the Precise Writing Test, among others, is open only to persons who have passed at least the Upper Secondary or the Matriculation Examination. Mr. Jervis has not passed either but only the late General Test. Persons who had passed only the last mentioned examination were, however, allowed a period of five years from January 1897 to appear for and pass the Precise Writing Test. Mr. Jervis does not appear to have made full use of this special concession granted by Government. Because, during this period of 5 years, the clerk appeared only once for the examination in 1898 and failed. His failure to appear again for the examination is set down to domestic troubles.

Under these circumstances, it is for consideration whether the present petition will be recommended to Government (Educational).

The first request has already been negatived - as the second it looks very much as

The second request contained in the petition submitted by Mr. Jervis is that he may be permitted to appear for the Precis writing test. As pointed out in the P. L. S. D. note above (pages 2 & 3) Mr. Jervis had ample opportunities to pass the test during the five years for which the concession, granted to the general test men to appear for special tests, lasted.
Orders are, ^{however} solicited as to whether, for the reasons given by the Examiner Public Works Account in para: 4 of his endorsement, Mr.
Jervis should be permitted to appear for the Secy test.

There are no special reasons for complying with either of the requests made by Mr. Lewis. No special action can be taken in the case.

The Board of Directors is informed that Mr. Lewis is that he has been permitted to appear for the Board's working test. As pointed out in the 15/8/55 note above (pages 2 & 3) Mr. Lewis has ample opportunity this to have the test during the five years for which the Commission granted to the General test over to appear for special test, least broken one, satisfied as to whether, for the reason given by the Commission Public works Board is in favor of his statement, Mr.
Lewis should be permitted to appear for the
