From (Name) A. R. Knapp, Esq., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Acting Collector of Malabar.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request ^{that} Government may be pleased to exempt permanently from the operation of the examination rules, T. R. Sundara Iyer, temporary clerk on B. 15 in the Walluanad Taluq. Sundara Iyer has been holding the above appointment since 16th January 1902. His exemption from the examination rules was first sanctioned in B.P. No. 1535 Routine, dated 10th June 1902 till 16th ^{July} 1902 and in B. P. No. 2638 Routine dated 18th October 1904, he was further exempted till 15th April 1905.

2. Sundara Iyer has 12 years' service in the Revenue Department and is reported to be a useful clerk. The temporary clerk's place which he is now holding will continue till the question of permanently strengthening the Taluq Establishments in this district is settled. The Divisional Officer reports that, as it is difficult to secure the services of passed men for temporary appointments in the Walluvanad Taluq, he will have again to continue to apply for temporary exemption and recommends that, in the circumstances, Sundara Iyer may be permanently exempted so as to enable him to hold posts up to Rs. 20 in the Revenue Department. I support Mr. Tottenham's recommendation and request that Government may be pleased to grant the exemption applied for.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. Malabar Wall

For Collector.

C. No. 1566 From the Collector of Malabar No. 1196, dated 17-8-1905.

SUBJECT.

Application for permanent exemption from the examination rules.

Orders are solicited as to whether the permanent exemption applied for should be granted. Sundara Aiyar now holds a temporary clerk's place on Rs. 15 in the Walluvanad Taluq Office and it is stated that this appointment will continue till the question of permanently strengthening the Taluq Establishments in the Malabar Dist. is settled. The Divisional Officer now recommends the permanent exemption of the clerk in order to avoid frequent application for temporary exemption, owing to the difficulty experienced in securing the services of passed men for temporary appointments in the Walluvanad Taluq. Submitted that this hardly affords a sufficient ground for permanent exemption in the present case. It is not stated what efforts have been made to secure the services of passed men for temporary appointments; nor has any information been given as to whether passed men cannot be had even for permanent posts in the Malabar District. The facts that the clerk in question has 12 years service.

service in the Revenue Department and has been holding the temporary appointment since 1902 and that he is reported to be a useful clerk, cannot be considered as affording any claim to exemption from the qualifications prescribed for permanent appointments. - Vide para: 3 of G.O. no 570 dt 18th August 1905.

Ru 29/8/5

This seems to be exactly the kind of applications which it was the intention of G.O. no 570 dt 18th August 1905 to prevent. The Board can now sanction temporary exemption as long as it is necessary & applications for such exemption will not cause very great inconvenience.

Permanent exemption for permanent posts cannot be granted. With reference to further exemption for temporary posts the Comr. should address the Bd with reference to G.O. 570/18/05.
