(Separate Revenue).

The Hon'ble Mr.H.Bradley,
1st.Member, Board of Revenue, & Commissioner of Salt,
Abkari and Separate Revenue.

Read letter from C.B.Cotterell, Esq., I.C.S., Ag. Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, C.R.No.1592/05, dated 22nd July 1905, requesting that Mr.H.R.Bartley may be permanently exempted from the operation of the Examination Rules.

REFERENCE:-

The Board begs to request that Government will be pleased to permanently exempt Mr.H.R.Bartley from passing the Upper Secondary Examination for employment in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department.

He was first temporarily exempted from the Examination Rules in G.O.No.223, Educational, dated 20th March 1902 for six months for employment as a temporary Sub-Inspector for patrol duty in the Emdore Circle. He was again temporarily employed for the same purpose during the seasons of 1904 and 1905. The local officers report that his work on each occasion as a Sub-Inspector has been satisfactory and that he is worth keeping in the Department.

2. An application in the prescribed form is enclosed.

Goat: have no information as regards Mr. Bartley except that he was employed as a temporary Sub Inspector in the Salt, Abkari & Customs Department on three occasions and that the local officers reported favourably about his work on each occasion. It is not stated whether the Commissioner has any personal experience of Mr. Bartley's work. In its reference on C.R. 824 of 17th March 1902 disposed of in G.O. No. 223 Est. of 20th March 1902 the Board of Revenue stated that it was not prepared to recommend Mr. Bartley for permanent exemption from the examination rules. The Board is ~~therefore~~ requested to be so good as to furnish further information.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Examination Rules.

For orders as to whether the Board's recommendation should be accepted. Mr. Bartley was temporarily exempted by Govt. only once, in 1902, for six months. The Board then exempted him for three months in 1905. In the original application of 1902 the Board said that it was not prepared to recommend his permanent exemption.
