Educational Department.

Sir,

Under instructions from the Directors of these Asylums, I have the honor to request sanction of Government for the admission on the foundation of the Waltair Orphanage of Theodora Elvina and Catherine Helen Chapman, and the payment of an allowance of Rs 15 each per mensem.

Mrs Chapman is a widow without present means of support of her own, and is dependant on her brother who is not in very good circumstances.

There were four pupils on the Rolls last year. The grant for Colin Latimour ceased to be drawn from the 1st January '05. Grace Reynard's grant will lapse in November next when she will have attained her 17th year. Connected papers are forwarded herewith for information and return.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

3. From the abstract of receipts and charges on

This will be enough to maintain the two children that will be left in the asylum for 4 years only -
