Despatch—from the Government of India, Finance Department (Leave and Leave Allowances).

To—His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Dated—Simla, the 22nd June 1905.

No.—231.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your despatch No. 133 (Public), dated the 16th September 1904, we have the honour to forward a copy of a letter from the Government of Madras regarding the specific leave rules which should be made applicable to Mr. R. A. Nelson, Principal of the Madras Law College.

2. Under the arrangements sanctioned in your predecessor's despatch No. 80, Public (Educational), dated the 28th June 1901, Mr. Nelson was permitted to count his service for furlough and leave allowances after he had served two years from the date, 2nd May 1901, on which he re-engaged for a third period of service. Previous to this Mr. Nelson's service was of a purely temporary nature and the question of the specific leave rules which should be applicable to him was not considered when the cases of other Educational officers were dealt with in 1896 (vide paragraph 14 of the Home Department Resolution No. 4-Education/204-15, dated the 23rd July 1896). The Accountant-General, in the note which forms an enclosure to the letter from the Government of Madras, is no doubt correct in ruling that in the absence of any decision special to Mr. Nelson he must be considered to come under the Indian Service Leave Rules. But we consider that this omission should now be rectified and his case considered on the merits. From this point of view there can, we think, be no question that Mr. Nelson should be subject to the European Service Leave Rules, and we accordingly recommend the grant to him of this concession.

Despatch—from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.
To—His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council.

Dated—India Office, London, the 11th August 1905.
No.—36, Judicial.

Having considered in Council the letter of your Excellency's Government in the Finance Department, No. 231, dated the 22nd June 1905, I sanction your proposal that Mr. R. A. Nelson, Principal of the Madras Law College, should be admitted to the benefit of the European Service Leave Rules.

Endorsement of the Government of India, Home Department (Education), No. 591, dated 5th September 1905.

Copy * forwarded to the Government of Madras for information, in continuation of the Home Department letter No. 453, dated the 5th July 1905.
* Despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 231, dated the 22nd June 1905.
Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 36, Judicial, dated the 11th August 1905.

Order—No. 624, Educational, dated 15th September 1905.

The Director of Public Instruction and the Accountant-General are informed that the Secretary of State has sanctioned the proposal of this Government that Mr. R. A. Nelson, Principal of the Madras Law College, may be admitted to the benefit of the European Service Leave Rules.
