NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 637, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
21st SEPTEMBER 1905.

[SUBJECT.—Regulations under the Indian Universities Act, 1904.]

Under section 26, sub-section (1), clause (a), of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the Senate has to prepare and submit to Government a revised body of regulations within one year after the commencement of the Act or within such further period as the Government may fix in that behalf. The Act came into force from the 1st of September 1904—vide the second notification (No. 718) of the Government of India on page 2 of G.O., No. 593, Educational, dated 26th September 1904. The Senate has not yet submitted its revised body of regulations but promises to do so next month—vide the Registrar's letter No. 2184, dated 12th September 1905. Orders are solicited whether a special G.O. should be passed under section 26, sub-section (1), extending the period for the submission of the revised body of regulations till, say, the 1st of November 1905. Sub-section (2) of section 26 contains the penalty for non-submission of regulations within a year or within the extended period but the provisions of this sub-section are permissive.

A. GALLETTI—15-9-05.

Submitted that the period may be extended to 30th November 1906.

H. D. TAYLOR—16-9-05.

We may as well say 31st December at once. There is much to be done—I expect—and discussion by the Senate is likely to take more time.
