dated 20th August 1905, submitting an application for permanent exemption from Examination Rules on behalf of Naidu
M. Koteswara Row, for employment as a clerk on Rs.15 in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department.

Reference.

The Board begs to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the permanent exemption of
M. Koteswara Rao Naidu from the Examination rules for employment as a clerk on Rs.15 per mensem in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department.

He is a 2nd grade Jemadar and has a total service of about 9 years in the Department besides a service of about 4 years in the Revenue Department. His age is 33 years and he has passed the late Upper Primary Examination. He has been acting as a clerk on Rs.15 and 20 for 8 years in the Nizampatam Circle under temporary exemptions granted by the Board and Government from time to time. He is reported to be intelligent and hard working and to possess a fair knowledge of English. In view of the great difficulty experienced in securing the services of passed candidates for Rs.15 posts in the Sub-division and the local officers recommend his permanent exemption. The Board strongly supports their recommendation both on the ground of the difficulty mentioned, and because it considers that to make him revert after serving as a clerk for 8 years, during which he has given satisfaction, would be unjust to him and <sup>injurious</sup> ~~injunious~~ to the public service. His permanent exemption is therefore requested.

3. An application in the prescribed form is enclosed.

Exempted temporarily, from time to time for a period of 8 years the last exemption being sanctioned in Board's Proceedings D.No.1011/Salt dated 15th March 1905 communicated in Deputy Commissioner's E.148/24th March 1905.

Notifications are being issued from time to time both in Fort St. George and District Gazettes inviting passed candidates, and suitable candidates are not available for Rs.15 post.

The individual has been acting as a clerk on Rs.15 and 20 for 8 years in more than one place gaining the satisfaction of his superiors. He is reported to be intelligent hardworking and willingman. He possesses a fair knowledge of English.

In view of the difficulties presenting themselves in the way of securing the services of suitable candidates his permanent exemption for Rs.15 clerks place is strongly recommended. He has a total service of about 9 years in the Department besides a service of about 4 years in the Revenue Department.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Examination Rule

The Board of Revenue strongly recommends the permanent exemption from the Examination rules of one Hoteswara Rao Nayudu, a second grade jamadar, for employment as a clerk on Rs. 15 per mensem in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department: on the grounds that great difficulty is experienced in securing the services of passed candidates, and because the Board considers that to make him revert from the clerk's post in which he has been acting for 8 years to that of jamadar would be unjust to him and injurious to the public service.

2. The Board of Revenue have now power to sanction the entertainment in acting and temporary vacancies of unpassed candidates without limit of time or salary and Govt. will not consider length of service by unqualified men as affording any claim for permanent exemption. - Vide G.O.
