C. No. 1501 From the D.P.P.

No. 6178, dated 10-8-1905.

SUBJECT.

Requesting that a portion of the leave in medical certificate granted to him may be commuted into vacation leave.

Examine please - Some objection was raised to this when Mr. Hunter originally applied for permission to add the vacation to his leave.

H.D.T.

23-8-05.

B.

Please see the notes and orders in R.P. no R.534 of 8th November 1904. Mr. Hunter applied for leave from 9th November 1904 ^(till the date of closing of the Raghunadray College for the summer vacation) and for permission to ^{commute} add the vacation to this leave. The Govt. had some doubt in the matter as the medical certificate recommended leave for eight months. The Accountant General said there was no objection to the grant of leave for a period shorter than 8 months as Mr. Hunter ^{would} have to obtain ~~permission~~ a certificate from the medical Board of the India Office before he ^{could} return to duty. Eventually he was granted 8 months leave in medical certificate & nothing was said about the vacation. It was however then ^{thought} ~~feared~~ that the officer acting for him ~~will~~ should get his acting allowance for the vacation also.

2. Mr. Hunter again raised the question while he was on leave and he was then informed that as he was on sick leave he could not return to duty without the permission of the Secretary of State and that he could not enjoy vacation leave unless he returned to duty before the commencement of the vacation - G.O. No 117 E.L. dt 24th February 1905.

X.

3. He was in April 1905 permitted by the Secretary of State to return to duty within the period of his leave - G.O. R no 262 E.L. dt 12th May 1905.

C.

4. The Accountant General says that there is no account objection to the ^{through} ~~leave~~ from 1st May to 9th July 1905 being commuted into vacation leave - as Mr. Hunter returned to Rajahmundry on the 10th July & no Officer was acting as Principal since 1st May. Under article 233(iv) of the C.S.R. ^{read with 2 of C.S.R.} the combined leave should be seven months and 28 days.

What was the app. or. must taken over by Mr. Allen on 1st May?
H.D.
29.8.05.

It must have been his own appointment of Professor of History in the Presidency College. He need not have however handed over charge till the date of the re-opening of the Rajahmundry College as Mr. Sundaramaiah was acting for him in the Presidency College till the 15th of May - the date on which that College closed - G.O. R no 159 E.L. dt 22nd March 1905. He could then have handed over charge at Rajahmundry to take up the Principal

Ship of the Presidency College - G.O. R no 229801
d. 26th April 1905. Between Mr. Bildenbeek's at the commencement of the Presidency College vacation departure and the reopening of the College Mr. Middlemas held charge of the Presidency College - G.O. R no 291901
d. 5th May 1905.

2. If however Mr. Allen had waited till the re-opening of the Rajahmundry College to hand over charge he would have been obliged to go ^{away from} ~~back to~~ Rajahmundry to some place where he intended to spend his vacation and back to again to Rajahmundry at his own expense - This would have made him a pretty heavy loser - he was drawing nothing extra at Rajahmundry - he was not entitled to anything extra.

See 1915
29/8/15

If Mr. Allen handed over charge of the Rajahmundry College on 1st May - he must have done so in order to take up some other appointment. He could not take up his own appointment as Professor at the Pres^y College till 15th May because other arrangements were fixed till that date.
However he was on 25-4-05 gazetted as Principal, Pres^y College, hence he should have joined that appointment from Rajahmundry, and not be on permanent app^t as Professor of History, Pres^y College who was in charge of the Rajahmundry

That is his own loss out.
He could have remained at Rajahmundry had he wished to do so.

from date of reopening of the College after vacation.

College during the vacation and under ³ what orders? - if Mr. Allen rejoined his permanent post as Professor of History on what date did he do so? He would not be entitled to 15 days joining time from Royal nursing to Kadas. The whole matter looks very much like a private arrangement between the officers concerned, without order from Govt, and I do not like it.

The District P. I. by allowing Mr Allen to hand over charge at Rajahmundry, and to resume his appointment as Professor of History, Presidency College on 10th May, has allowed a departure from the terms of the Gazette notification of 20th March, under which M. R. K. Sundararaja Aiyar was to act in the latter appointment till 15th May the date fixed for the commencement of the summer vacation.

Mr. Hunter joined at Rajahmundry on 10th July. He asks that the latter part of his leave, may be treated as vacation leave, (from 1st May to 9th July). The A. G. certifies that there is no official objection to this - but the D. P. I. seems to have made special arrangement under which Mr Hunter might get the full benefit of the vacation leave from 1st ^{May} July, though, in order to do this he had, in effect, to infringe a gazetted order of appointment.

Attention is invited to Hon. Member's order of 22.2.05- S.O. 117 - in which it was clearly stated that if Mr Hunter desired vacation leave, he should return to duty before the vacation commenced. As a matter of fact he returned at the end of the vacation and now submits his application for conversion of leave on M. P. into vacation leave on full pay

My order regarding Mr Hunter and the vacated leave must stand.
I cannot understand how a man at of no country & returning from such leave is entitled to full pay because there happens to be a vacation & his office is vacant

The vacating of Mr Regan's principles by Mr Allen is explainable only as effected to give rise to the present claim; and I see no reason why men should be allowed to manipulate Govt appointments in this way. Regan's was provided with a proper head; & he should have returned charge the day received

Mr Hunter's claim should be
