To

The Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Deputy Collector, Jammalamadugu Division, recommends that Chapad Subba Rau, an unpassed man, may be exempted permanently from the Examination rules for employment as a clerk on Rs.15 in one of the several vacancies existing in his Division.

2. This Chapad Subba Rau is the permanent attender on Rs.7 and an acting clerk on Rs.15 in the Pulivendla Taluk office. He is 29 years old, has passed the Primary School Examination and has been acting as a clerk off and on since July 1893. He was confirmed as an attender on 1st January 1901 and continues to act as a clerk under temporary exemptions granted to him from time to time. He has a fair knowledge of English, writes a good hand and is not inferior to the average Matriculate. He is also conversant with all branches of Taluk office work and is now looking after Minor Irrigation, Incometax and other Miscellaneous work.

3. In this connection I may mention for the information of Government that for want of passed men there existed till very recently no less than 13 permanent vacancies on Rs.15 in this District. I advertised them in three successive issues of the Fort Saint George Gazette as also in the Madras Mail, the the Madras Times, the Madras Standard and the Hindu for 3 weeks, twice a week. Only three applications have in the result been received and these have been provided with permanent appointments.

4. There are still the marginally noted ten permanent time and there is no hope of getting passed men. Before however addressing Government for the permanent exemption of a number of unpassed men as the only possible means of filling up these long existing vacancies, I have resolved to wait till the results of the Handwriting and Dictation Test to be held in December 1905 are announced. In the meantime I would only recommend the exemption of Chapad Subba Rau, whose character and work have been noticed favourably by more than one Tahsildar and Divisional officer.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. S. S. S. S. S.
