To

The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department.

1. Sir, B. Gurn Raju, 5th Compositor on Rs 12 in the District Press here, has put in 16 years' service and has always been working - satisfactorily. His promotion to higher grades of Rs 15 and upwards is now barred as he does not possess the general educational qualifications laid down in rule 7.

of the Press manual, i.e. the matriculation or Upper-Secondary examination.

2. Last year when the 2nd Compositor took furlough, this man was appointed by me to act as 4th Compositor on Rs 15, on 1st October 1904, under temporary exemption by me from examination rules for 3 months and applications were invited through advertisements in the Fort St George Gazette and the Hindu for the permanent vacancy.

After a careful consideration of the applications received, I consider that none of the applicants has superior qualifications. As Government is aware, it is very difficult to obtain men who have passed both the matriculation and the Printing Tests.

3. Under the circumstances, I submit that this man's case is a fit one for permanent exemption from examination rules and accordingly recommend that Government may be pleased to permanently exempt him from the operation of rule 7. of the Press manual from the date of his acting appointment, viz. 1.10.04.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant,
S. K. S. Acharya
