Madras, 5th Oct. 1905.

From

J. P. LEWIS, Esq.,
Editor, Eastern Guardian,
Madras.

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT
OF MADRAS,
Ootacamund.

Sir,

Art. 1. 0. In the Public Service Notification published in the Fort St. George Gazette of September 19, 1905, it is provided under the head General Educational Qualifications that "Persons not being natives of India, who have passed no public examination, must satisfy Government that they have received an education at least up to the standard of the Upper Secondary or the Matriculation Examination" to be eligible for appointment in the public service. I request you will be so good as to let me know for the information of the Eurasian and Anglo-Indian Association, whether Europeans and Eurasians are included in the category of "persons not being natives of India" referred to above.

I beg to remain

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

J. P. Lewis

C. No. 1779 From the Editor, Eastern Guardian No. 3, dated 5-10-1905.

SUBJECT.

Interpretation of art. 1 of the Public Service notification

The Editor of the Eastern Guardian, Madras, requests to be informed whether Europeans and Eurasians are included in the category of "persons not being natives of India" occurring in the last portion of art. 1 of the Public Service notification, as now revised, which provides that "persons not being natives of India, who <sup>have</sup> passed no public examination, must satisfy Govt. that they have received an Education at least up to the standard of the upper secondary or the matriculation examination." It is submitted that there is no reason to exclude Eurasians from the category of "persons not being natives of India". Orders are however solicited.

Submitted that "natives" as used in article 1 of the Public Service notification means "Statutory natives". Eurasians are statutory natives — Govt. of India Act,

No. 141 of 1840, section 6.

The Editor of the Eastern Guardian, London, requests to be informed whether European and American are included in the category of persons not being natives of India, occurring in the list of out of the Public Service Commission. As an official which provides that persons not being natives of India, who are not public servants, must satisfy that the law is not concerned in the list of out of the Public Service Commission. It is suggested that there is no reason to exclude persons from the category of persons not being natives of India.

Submitted this "Native" clause in which refers to the Public Service Commission.

"British Indian" clause in which refers to the Public Service Commission.

Yours faithfully,
