G.O., No. 368, Educational, dated 31st May 1905.

ABSTRACT.—Stating that the allowance of Rs. 75 per annum sanctioned to the Assistant Professor of Hygiene and Bacteriology in G.O., No. 1914 M., dated 10th December 1894, for his work in connection with the training of Sanitary Inspectors will cease from the date on which his pay was raised from Rs. 100—10—200 to Rs. 200—20—300.

Letter—from Dr. P. S. CHANDRA SEKHAR, B.A., M.D., Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene and Bacteriology, Medical College.
To—the Principal, Medical College, Madras.
Dated—Madras, the 17th August 1905.
No.—22.

I request you will be so good as to take into consideration the following case.

Since the opening of the Sanitary Inspectors' class in 1895, I have been in receipt of an allowance of Rs. 75 annually for my work in connection with that class under G.O., No. 1914 M., dated 10th December 1894. A course of demonstration in Bacteriology added to the curriculum in 1903 was entrusted to me. An application for extra remuneration for this special course of demonstration was not favourably considered by Government (G.O., No. 522, dated 22nd August 1904). But neither in this order nor in G.O., No. 98, Educational, dated 4th March 1903, is any reference made to the allowance in question. In the latter order my pay is increased to the grade Rs. 200—20—300; this is due to the association of regular bacteriological duties to the appointment of Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene and does not refer to my work in connection with the Sanitary Inspectors' class. G.O., No. 368, Educational, dated 31st May 1905, however, enjoins that the allowance in question should cease from the date on which my pay was raised to the present grade in March 1903, i.e., it gives retrospective effect to the order and subjects me to a refund of allowance drawn for work previously performed.

The allowance having been duly passed for three years now since the receipt of the Government order increasing my pay, I feel that it is a hardship that recovery should now be ordered. For these reasons I request you will be good enough to recommend that the retrospective effect of the G.O., No. 368, Educational, dated 31st May 1905, be removed.

No.—224.

I have the honour to submit, for favourable consideration, the above petition from the Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene and Bacteriology in this college.

2. Attention is invited to article 279-A of the Civil Account Code, Volume I, 6th edition, which appears to meet the circumstances of the case.

Endorsement of the Director of Public Instruction, N.R.O.C. No. 7326/5, dated 27th September 1905.

Submitted to Government, through the Accountant-General, for favour of orders.

V

Endorsement of the Accountant-General, Madras, No. P.A. 516/8176, dated 14th October 1905.

Submitted to Government.

If the applicant's prayer is granted, the payments made in 1903 and 1904 may be remitted by Government under article 279-A of the Civil Account Code. As the amount paid in April 1905 was paid with the intimation that it was kept under objection pending receipt of orders of Government, the recovery cannot be waived without reference to the Government of India. All the amounts have been recovered.

Order—No. 708, Educational, dated 31st October 1905.

The Government will not insist on the refund of the allowances drawn in 1903 and 1904, but the orders on the recovery of the allowance drawn in 1905 will stand.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 708, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 31st OCTOBER 1905.

[SUBJECT.—Allowance of Rs. 75 drawn by the Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene for work connected with the Sanitary Inspectors' class.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 27th September 1905, No. 7326.

Under G.O., No. 1914 M., dated 10th December 1894, the Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene, Madras Medical College, was given an allowance of Rs. 75 per annum for work connected with the sanitary inspectors' class. This payment was fixed when there was instruction in Hygiene only—please see the notes in G.O., No. 522, Educational, dated 22nd August 1904. Subsequently the elements of Physiology and Bacteriological demonstrations were added. These demonstrations also were given by the Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene and when he applied for additional remuneration for the demonstrations the application was rejected for the reason that the demonstrations formed part of his regular duties—G.O., No. 522, Educational, dated 22nd August 1904.

2. In May last, the Accountant-General raised the question whether the original allowance of Rs. 75 even should continue to be given and if it should, he requested that the sanction of the Government of India might be obtained therefor, since, the Assistant's pay having been raised in 1903 to Rs. 200—20—300, such sanction was thereafter necessary under articles 72 (b) note and 76 (1) of the Civil Service Regulations. It was then decided that the allowance of Rs. 75 should be stopped from the date on which the Assistant's pay was raised—G.O., No. 368, Educational, dated the 31st May 1905. Under this order the Accountant-General has recovered the payments made in 1903, 1904 and 1905. The Assistant now prays that these recoveries may be countermanded.

3. The Accountant-General states that if the Assistant's prayer is granted the payments in 1903 and 1904 may be remitted under article 279-A of the Civil Account Code, but that for the remission of the payment in 1905 the sanction of the Government of India will be necessary.

4. Orders are solicited. The reason given for stopping the allowance from the date on which the Assistant's pay was raised to Rs. 200—20—300 was that the raising of the pay was sanctioned on account of the addition of bacteriological work to his duties—vide notes in G.O., No. 368, Educational, dated 31st May 1905, but it is respectfully submitted that the allowance of Rs. 75 was not originally given for bacteriological work, but entirely for Hygiene work. An application for remuneration on account of bacteriological work was, as already stated, rejected.

It was given for lecturing to the Sanitary Inspectors' class: hygiene covers elementary bacteriological demonstrations.

A. GALLETTI—23-10-05.

The only hardship consists in the refund of what has been erroneously drawn since 4th March 1903. Had the objection been taken at the time, the payment would have been certainly disallowed. In view of recent orders of India in similar cases it is useless to go up in respect of the allowance drawn in April 1905. Whether the allowance of Rs. 75, drawn in 1903 and 1904, should be refunded is for orders.

H. D. TAYLOR—24-10-05.

The allowances drawn in 1903 and 1904 need not be refunded.
