ACCOUNTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE 1834 5 OCT 1905 MADRAS

From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. A.G. Bourne, D.Sc., F.R.S.

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction

J.D

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department.

Sir, /Through the Accountant-General/

Under addendum to the supplement to the Civil Service Regulations under Articles 176 and 177 I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to an extension of 44 days' joining time on behalf of M.R.Ry S. Parthasarathi Aiyangar Librarian and Store-Keeper College of Engineering who was transferred as Head Clerk of the School of Arts.

2. M.R.Ry Parthasarathi Aiyangar's successor who was relieved in the School of Arts on the afternoon of the 11th February 1905 reported himself at the College of Engineering on the forenoon of the 13th idem as the 12th was a Sunday. The post of Librarian and Store-Keeper of the College of Engineering is a very responsible one its incumbent being in charge of of stationery stores instruments models lending and consulting libraries and the accounts of the deposits made by the students. It took Paranjoti Pillai the present incumbent till the afternoon of the 29th March last to complete taking charge of all these as during that period the current work of the college had also to be carried on. I am informed that neither the relieving nor the relieved officer enjoyed any holidays.

3. I enclose for the information of Government a copy of letter No. 299/C dated 27th May 1905 of the Principal of the College from which it will be seen that he does not consider the period excessive.

4 I beg to add that the period of joining time is under article 180 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations within the sanctioning powers of the Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T Elliott

Copy of a letter from the Principal, College of Engineering Madras No. 299/C dated 27th May 1905.

"Referring to your Proceedings Ref on Cur No. 3194 of 05 dated 11th May 1905 I have the honour to report that S. Parthasarathi Aiyangar attended to his regular duties while engaged in giving over charge of the Library and stores and that T. Paranjoti Pillai was occupied in taking charge of stationery stores instruments models and books and checking deposit accounts while Parthasarathi Aiyangar attended to his current work.

Irregular. It was no part of his duty in taking over charge

2. On the 16th and 17th February Paranjoti Pillai was sent to the Office of the Superintendent of Stationery to take delivery of the articles of stationery indented for this year and on the 18th he was engaged in checking and arranging them. For the whole of the remaining period he was occupied in checking and re-arranging Reference Library books and in taking charge of the Lending Library and of the students' Deposit accounts. To the best of my belief no holidays were enjoyed by either of these persons and both of them worked out of office hours.

3. In view of these circumstances and of the fact that the apparatus dealt with was altogether new to Paranjoti Pillai, I am of opinion that the period occupied in taking over charge was not excessive."

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 1802 From the D.P.I. No. 3194, dated 3-10-1905.

SUBJECT.

Requesting that the joining time of S. Parthasaradhi Aiyangar, Librarian & Storekeeper, College of Engineering may be extended to 44 days.

Paranjoti Pillai who relieved Parthasaradhi Aiyangar reported himself at the College of Engineering on the forenoon of the 13th February 1905. It took him till the afternoon of the 29th March to complete taking charge of the stationery, stores, instruments, models, lending and consulting libraries and of the accounts of the ~~student~~ deposits made by students. To the best of Col: Love's belief no holidays were enjoyed during this period by either of these persons and both of them worked out of office hours — page 3 of the current. The fact however still remains that the process of taking charge occupied 45 days. This seems almost incredible. It is however difficult to say with whom the fault lies — whether with Parthasaradhi Aiyangar or with Paranjoti Pillai — perhaps with both. All the while the current work of the College was also carried on and it is not difficult to understand that while ~~the~~ one of the parties was engaged the other could not do much in the way of either giving or taking over charge.

2. Orders are solicited whether the extension of joining time applied for should be granted. Under Article 180 (b) of the CSR the Local Govt. can grant it but in that case they have to report the proceedings to the Govt. of India in the Finance Depart with a full statement of the circumstances of the case. If extension is not granted it may perhaps be possible to treat the period as privilege leave.

P.J. 18/10/5 It does not appear from the papers whether the Principal, College of Engineering, was aware at the time that six weeks were being spent on handing over charge or that he exercised any supervision.

23.10.5

Secy

The whole arrangement was most unsatisfactory. From the Principal's letter it appears that he practically took the opportunity of employing the two men on full time work (a) in taking over charge of stationery which was not in stock at the time (b) in arranging books and records: but this does not appear to have been the fault of Parthasarathi Aiyangar, but of the Principal.

Pr. Secy

Under what rule can the maximum (art 177) of 30 days be ~~approved~~ extended?

24.10.05

Under Article 180 (a) (ii) of the C.S.R. without reference to the Govt. of India.

For orders.

If the extension is granted up to 45 days India must be addressed under 180(b). I do not think that we have a good case to send up to India. I consider that Parthasarathi Aiyangar was improperly detained under the orders of the Principal. In any case Paramjoti Pillai should not have assumed charge till his stock taking was complete.

I agree we must refuse to extend joining time in this case. I apprehend the Principal took the opportunity to have his house put in order. I have known the case since in the Jail Dept also and I think Somervile on the subject sh'd be laid down.

Please draft refusing extension. I gather that Hon'ble Members ~~[illegible]~~ rule that no extension (not even up to 30 days which is within the power of this Govt.) should be granted

My intention was to allow 30 days but refuse to go up to India for any extension I think that is what the Hon Mr Stokes ^also^ allows means. There is generally a good ~~[illegible]~~ deal as.

of time occupied when stores have to be transp'd. but 45 days is unjustifiable & I w'd reduce it below 30 days if I only had data, but there are not worth the trouble

The Governor in Council is not prepared ~~either~~ to ~~sanction or~~ recommend any extension of joining ~~time~~, i.e. beyond 30 days, the maxm. wh. the ~~Govt.~~ local Govt can sanction. It is with the greatest hesitation ~~that~~ the Govt have felt justified in sanctioning ~~even any~~ even this extension beyond the ordinary joining time & they do so only as a very special case.

2. The Director of Public Instruction is requested to draw the attention of the Principal of the College of Engineering to the fact that Paranjoti Pillai should not have been allowed to join until he had properly taken over charge and that he should not in the course of doing so have been required to take ~~over~~ delivery from the Superintendent of Stationery of the articles included in the indent for the current year.
