The proposal to inform the A.G. that the presence of Mr. Thurston on the hills was required on duty may be accepted.

2. Mr. Thurston halted at several places on the hills. It will be seen from his travelling allowance bill that the halt at only one place - at Kotagiri - extended beyond 10 days. He claims daily allowance for only 10 days of this halt. As the halts made at the other stations were all of less than 10 days' duration, it is submitted that no exemption need be granted to enable Mr. Thurston to draw daily allowance for that period
