Through C. M. Mullaly Esq., I.C.S., Collector of the Nilgiris, Ootacamund.

Respected Sir,

I beg most respectfully to request that your honour will be pleased to ^{and forward} recommend to Government this application for my permanent exemption from the Examination rules to hold posts in this Collectorate carrying a salary, (plus any local allowance attached thereto) which may be fixed by my superiors, in consideration of the following circumstances which I trust have some force and will meet with your honour's approval.

2. I passed the Lower Secondary Examination in 1891, and this I may fairly say, was the highest standard in this District as a whole, for which boys born and bred on these hills like myself, were being ordinarily prepared in my old school days. I may lay stress on the fact that though it is now more than a decade, this Examination continues to be the highest standard for which Nilgiri men are ordinarily prepared and for poorer classes of boys it is almost impossible to prosecute their studies further as the standard of education in schools on these Hills is limited and to lay out large sums on the education of such boys outside the District is an idea which could not be maintained owing to the scanty income of the parents which is barely sufficient to gain even a suitable living.

3. I obtained a situation as an attendant on Rs 10/- in 1894 with what was considered the highest District Educational qualification to which Hill Residents (descendants of old residents) could seek and attain by all reasonable efforts in this District, yet considered an educationally backward District.

4. During a total service of 11 years I have been and am doing doing though nominally designated as an attender, clerical duties unlike in the plains, being found competent by my superiors for discharge of such a nature of work, my experience and knowledge in official routine gained during all these years I respectfully venture to submit, have placed me, in a position to discharge any of the clerical duties to the entire satisfaction of my superiors and also as efficiently (if not more) as could be expected from raw men of the requisite educational qualifications and I earnestly beg that all my exertions and toil will not be counted futile as I did every thing in my power to learn things outside my ordinary work as an attender which I did in order to render satisfaction to my superiors to the utmost of my power and skill and in order that my work may be recognised by my superiors.

5. I beg to state that exemptions have been given by the benign Government to men who have not passed even the Lower Secondary Examination or the equivalent tests provided in those days the object being to secure and retain experienced men and men who are in better equality than those possessing educational attainments and qualifications but without official knowledge or experience.

6. I beg also to state that exemptions have also been granted without any limit as to post-grade or pay and that these exemptions have been given in the case of quite unpassed men of other Districts such as Coimbatore etc., which is more favourably situated in regard to the diffusion of education at a low cost by the provision of so many cheap colleges and High schools.

I give a list of such individuals.

7. I beg most respectfully that my superiors will be good enough to fix the grade and pay in stating my case to Government if it is considered to be a deserving one and at the same time I beg to be allowed to say that if restriction is limited to posts on Rs 17½ (plus local allowance) of which there are only two in this district I may not have the benefit of exemption (if kindly given by Government as has been done on the kind recommendation) of your predecessors in office and your honour as well) for many years to come as the two such posts are held by unpassed men.

3. I shall ever make it my duty to remember this act of kindness with deep gratitude all my life.

I beg to remain

Respected Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. Hanuman

Secretary.

Lazarus, an attender in the Collector's Office,
the Nilgiris, applies for permanent exemption
from the upper secondary Examination so as to enable him to hold higher posts in the Collectorate. It is reported that he has passed the ~~late~~ lower secondary Examination ^{held in 1891} and has ^{and} put in a total service of 11 years. The Collr. in forwarding the application for favourable consideration states that the applicant is useful and industrious and recommends the exemption so far as to enable him to hold a post carrying pay not exceeding Rs. 20 per mensem.

The fact the numerous exemptions have been given is an argument against, rather than in favour of, further exemptions.
It is not alleged by the Collr. that passed candidates cannot be obtained. This is clearly of the nature of a "farewell" application. The only argument in favour of "Lazarus" is that he has done what he could - with reference to local conditions - to qualify.

But unless Revenue see cause to the contrary, I would not exempt the present applicant.

I don't know the individual, & I am not sure whether there is any difficulty now-a-days in getting passed men in the Nilgiri Collectorate. If not, there is no case for exemption.
