The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to apply for the permanent exemption from the Handwriting and Dictation Test of C.V. --- Narasimhachari Copyist Clerk on P. 15 in the Taluk Office Rajahmundry.

2. He has passed the Matriculation Examination and the Revenue Lower marginally noted special Tests -- Account Test Lower which would have entitled him to Translation Lower. which would have entitled him to further promotion as a Revenue - Inspector had he passed the Handwriting and Dictation -- Test. He was first entertained in 1896 as an acting -- clerk in which appointment he continued till 30-9-05 and was eventually confirmed as Copyist Clerk. He was exempted from time to time from the Handwriting and Dictation Test by the Board of Revenue. He appeared for these -- Tests no less than 14 times but was always unsuccessful. This is such an unprecedented record that he has lost -- hope and wants to seek for any employment under Private bodies or Zamindars. In view of this long service in the Taluk Office and his usefulness as a clerk, the Sub Collector strongly recommends his exemption and I support it. I have satisfied myself that the clerk is really a useful man who has had extraordinarily bad luck.

3. It will be seen from a specimen of his handwriting enclosed that it is quite good enough for ordinary office work and is no worse than that of many men who are lucky enough to get through the Test.

I have the honour to be

The humble petition of C.V. Narasimachari Copyist clerk Taluk office Rajahmundry.

Sir

I humbly beg to state that I passed the matriculation examination held in December 1895, and was entertained in the Revenue Department on 20.4.96. I have been continuously acting in this department for the last 9 years with necessary and occasional breaks, and in October last, your honour was pleased to confirm me as a copyist clerk of this office.

2. With a view to get a permanent footing in this department and to qualify myself for higher appointments I have passed the following Special Tests.

1 Revenue Lower 1899.

2 Account test Lower 1900.

3 Translation Lower 1901.

But as I have not been fortunate enough to secure a pass in the Handwriting examination, I cannot aspire to any higher appointment. I appeared for the examination 14 times during these nine years. Had it not been for my repeated failures in the examination which are solely attributable to my misfortune, and which made my attainments ineffectual, I would have been acting as a Revenue Inspector with a pucca appointment at least on Rs 20 and with preferential claims to many of my seniors.

3. My continuous appointment for so long a time and my confirmation as copyist clerk will speak of my work and the satisfaction I gave to my superiors.
4. I therefore most humbly beg to request that your honour will be pleased to consider my hard case and recommend me for permanent exemption from passing the Hand-writing test, as otherwise my continuance in the department is not advantageous and private service would be more profitable. for which act of kindness, I as in duty bound shall ever pray.

I beg to remain
Sir

Your most obedient servant

C.V. Karasimachari

Copyist clerk Taluk office

C. No. 1963 From the C.M. of Godavari No. 4339, dated 2-11-1905.

SUBJECT.

Permanent exemption from the hand-writing and Dictation test.

The C.M. of Godavari recommends the permanent exemption from the handwriting and dictation test of C.V. Narasimha Chari, Copyist Clerk on Rs. 15 in the Taluk office, Rajahmundry, on the ground that the clerk of his long service and his usefulness as a clerk. The C.M. does not say that passed men are not available for the post. Under G.O. no 570 Est. of 18th August 1905 Govt. will not consider length of service by unqualified men as affording any claim to exemption from the qualifications prescribed for permanent appointments. Orders are however solicited.

Rec
16/11/05

The exemption required is of a Copyist Clerk. and the test from which exemption is required is the handwriting & dictation test. If the man is good enough to be a Copyist his not passing the test (for which he is said to have appeared no less than 14 times) does not seem to be of much consequence. Orders are solicited.

Para: 3 of G.O.

Permanent occupations cannot be parted on the ground that the man is 'a useful hand'. A copyist should be able to write well - it is the first essential. I cannot conceive that his handwriting is good - or that in failing to pass for 10 years he has 'extraordinary hand luck'. It is well known that paroled men cannot be procured. Probably the improved man whose handwriting is better can be easily obtained.

Application refused, App. 'has sufficient reason to believe that he is a copyist'.

The 'draft' placed below is submitted for approval.
