Revenue Department

Sir,

I have the honour to state that owing to the dearth of passed candidates in the Palnad Taluk, much difficulty is experienced in filling up vacancies, consequent on the grant of leave etc. to the clerical staff. The Taluk belongs to the Narsaraopet Division and being the most remote from the Railway line has a bad reputation. It is said to be feverish, is 40 miles from the nearest Railway station, infested with dacoits and classed as "backward" by the Educational authorities. There are thus very few passed candidates to be had in the taluk itself and no one from other taluks will go there except on compulsion. These men invariably go sick after a short spell. The result is that work has to be entrusted to unpassed candidates, selected off-hand from the very limited number of school boys of that Taluk who return from the towns after failing in the Lower Secondary or some such examination. The employment of such men for any considerable length of time cannot but affect prejudicially the efficiency of any office and the effects are more noticeable in the Palnad, which is not, on account of its remoteness, subject to as frequent a check as other offices in the District are.

2. As a partial remedy for this state of affairs, I propose that some unpassed men whose ability and fitness for clerical work has already been tested in other offices may be permanently exempted from examination rules for service in the Palnad. As such men cannot ordinarily secure permanent employment on Rs.15 in the principal taluks some of ^{them} are willing to accept the hardships of a life in the Palnad in return for such a concession. For the present I propose two men for exemption - No.1 is spoken of

the

2	C.L.Narasimhamurti	26	6½	7 "	Do.	of Palnad and the Divisional Officer, Narsaraopet. No.2 is a permanent attendant of this office. He bears a good character for industry and is thoroughly acquainted with the routine of office work. He is fairly intelligent and has been doing clerk's work for a long time in some vacancy or other and is capable of turning out as much work as any Matriculate. I recommend that they may be exempted from Matriculation and Handwriting test permanently. I will then take steps to see that they are posted to the Palnad at the earliest opportunity.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Ans Subbayya

For posts on R15?

He may be exempted for posts on R15 in the Palnad Taluk office. For higher posts the Col. will doubtless be able to arrange for the transfer of some of the officers, for other offices in the district.
