To

His Excellency the Right Honourable

Arthur Oliver Villiers Baron Ampthill,

G. C. S. I., G. C. I. E.,

GOVERNOR OF FORT ST. GEORGE,

MADRAS.

The humble petition of SAIYED ABUL KASIM RAZVI, Inspector of Police, Jayankondacholapuram Division, Trichy District.

THROUGH

The Superintendent of Police,

TRICHINOPOLY DISTRICT.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH,

1 That the petitioner had sent a petition to Your Excellency praying for some suitable appointment, and in reply Your Excellency regretted that he was not qualified for a Deputy Collectorate and directed him to accept some subordinate post to start with.

2 That the petitioner has accordingly entered life as Inspector of Police in the District of Trichinopoly and that he had the honour of having ridden in front of Your Excellency's carriage as a guide during Your Excellency's visit to Trichinopoly.

3 That the petitioner prays that Your Excellency may be graciously pleased to exempt him from the Government Examinations or at least permit him to appear for the same so that he may qualify himself for bettering his prospects.

4 And, should the concession sought for be granted before your Excellency's leaving for Home, the family that has rendered meritorious services to the British Raj, would deem it a material boon and pray for your Excellency's long life and continued prosperity.

TRICHINOPOLY,
6th November 1905.

S. A. K. Razvi

ENCLOSURES :—

1. Copy of the Petitioner's former petition.
2. Do. Your Excellency's reply to the above petition.
3. One Booklet of Petitioner's Testimonials and Family History.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
August 19th, 1903.

Sir,

I am desired by His Excellency to acknowledge the receipt of your petition praying for some suitable appointment and in reply to say that H. E. regrets he cannot comply with your request as you are not qualified for a Deputy Collectorate or an attachéship.

You will therefore have to be content with some subordinate post to start with. Such appointments His Excellency does not interfere with, and you should therefore apply to the Collector of your District, the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, or the Head of any other Department in which you may desire to obtain employment.

Yours faithfully,

(Signed) L. M. WYNCH.

To

His Excellency the Right Hon'ble

Arthur Oliver Villiers, Baron Ampthill,

G. C. I. E.,

Governor of Fort St. George,

Madras.

The humble petition of SAIYID ABUL KASIM RAZVI, son of the Mitta-Zemindar of Chickampatti, Dharmapuri Taluk, Salem District.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH,

That the petitioner is, as his Geneological Table will show, the fifth in descent from Nawab Saiyid Muhammed Khan Bahadur, the Chief Khilladar of the Bangalore Fort; and sixth in descent from Nawab Mir Asaudulla Khan Bahadur, the Prime Minister to Nawab Sabdar Ali Khan Bahadur, the Ruler of Arcot (Vide Rob. Orme's History of the Military Transactions of the British Nation in Indoostan, vol. I., pages 39, 43, 45 and 48.)

2. That the Khilladar, his paternal ancestor, treated the British prisoners of war with much humanity and kindness, assisted them with large sums of money at a time when there was war waging from one corner of the Peninsula to another and gave them their liberty (vide General Lung's letter to the Secretary of State for India, under date the 10th of April 1815, and Government Order No. 952, dated 28th September 1820, and G. O.s, Nos. 234 and 809, dated respectively 6th and 27th February 1838, and also the letter No. 290 from the Chief Secretary of the Madras Government to the Government of India, dated 21st September 1870).

3. That his grand-father Moulvi Saiyid Abul Kasim Sahib, an eminent Muhammadan Law Officer and Special Commissioner of Mangalore, attached to the then Western Provincial Court, was also appointed by the Government, under Regulation II of 1802, as a Commissioner of Coorg with John Vaughan, Esq., Judge of the Western Provincial Court, and Thomas Strange, Esq., Judge of the Auxiliary Court at Tellicherry (vide the Sannad, under date the 22nd of April 1837).

4. That his great grand-uncle Mir Abul Kasim Khan Moin-ud-dowlah Nasib-ud-dowlah Bahadur was the son-in-law of His Highness the Nawab Sikander Jah Bahadur, the late Nizam of Hyderabad.

5. That he has passed the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University, taking Tamil as his second language, and also the Government Hand-writing and Dictation Tests for Undergraduates; that he knows Tamil, Urdu, Persian and Arabic very well and understands a little Telugu besides; that he had been appointed as Hon. Cadet along with the sons of the Chief Noblemen of Hyderabad and was drilled and disciplined for a period of nearly two years under instructions from the Nizam's Government; and that he is rather efficient in the art of riding and shooting.

6. That the petitioner went up for F. A. Examination more than once, but failed to secure a pass on account of some unforeseen accident affecting his studies; that the petitioner had resolved to attain a higher proficiency in educational qualifications before applying for an appointment, but he now finds it too late in life to be still striving at University degrees.

7. Under these circumstances the petitioner is now desirous of entering into public service, and prays that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to confer on him a post befitting a descendant of such noble Sires, and thus afford him an opportunity of his giving proof of that birthright, zeal and loyalty which his forefathers showed wherever they were placed in high places of trust.

8. For which kindness the petitioner shall as in duty bound ever be very grateful.

Your Lordship's most Respectful petitioner,

DHARMAPURI,
Aug. 1903.

A SHORT SKETCH

OF

THE FAMILY HISTORY

S. A. K. RAZVI.

S. A. K. Razvi is, as the Geneological Table will show, the fifth in descent from Nawab Saiyid Muhammed Khan Bahadur, the chief Khilladar of the Bangalore Fort and sixth in descent from Nawab Mir Asaudulla Khan Bahadur, the Prime Minister to Nawab Subdar Ali Khan Bahadur, the Ruler of Arcot.

The Prime Minister, his paternal ancestor is praised by Robert Orme, F. A. S., the Historian in his "History of the Military Transactions of the British Nation in Indoostan" Vol. I. Pages 39, 43, 45 and 48.

The Khilladar, his paternal ancestor, treated the British Prisoners of War with much humanity and kindness and assisted them with large sums of money at a time when there was war waging from one corner of the Peninsula to another and gave them their liberty. He did this at a time when he had no connection with the British.

[Vide extract of letter from General Lung to the Secretary of State for India under date the 10th of April 1815 and Government Order No. 952, dated 28th of September 1820 and General Orders Nos. 234 and 809, dated respectively 6th and 27th of February 1838 and also the Letter No. 290, from the Chief Secretary of the Madras Government to the Government of India, dated 21st September 1870.]

His great grand-father Moulvi Saiyid Abdur Ruzzack Sahib had held high and responsible posts under Tippu Sultan and on the fall of Srirangapatam was appointed Kazi of "Bara Mahal" and the Jaghire of Goornathapalli in the Krishnagiri Taluk, Salem District was conferred on him by the British Government. The Jaghire is still enjoyed by the family.

His grand-father Moulvi Saiyid Abul Kasim Sahib, who was an eminent Muhammadan Law Officer and Special Commissioner of Mangalore, attached to the then Western Provincial Court, was also appointed by the Government, under Regulation II of 1802, a Commissioner of Coorg with John Vaughan, Esq., Judge of the Western Provincial Court and Thomas Strange, Esq., Judge of the Auxiliary Court at Tellicherry. He assisted greatly the British Government during the Insurrection of Coorg.

[Vide the Sannad dated the 22nd of April 1837].

Mr. F. N. Maltbi in his official letter No. 6, dated the 9th of March 1847, while recommending his paternal uncle to W. E. Lockhart, Esq., the Collector of Salem, states as follows:—"The services of his grand-father and father establish a claim to Government employment." The same officer in his letter to his paternal uncle dated the 19th of July, 1850 says:—"Your father served the Government with credit and I hope you will do the same."

Hon'ble Mir Humayun Jah Bahadur, C.I.E., F.M.U., a grandson of Tippu Sultan and who had been a member of the Madras Legislative Council for a period of 24 years and who was also appointed a member of the Imperial Legislative Council was the cousin of his great grand-father.

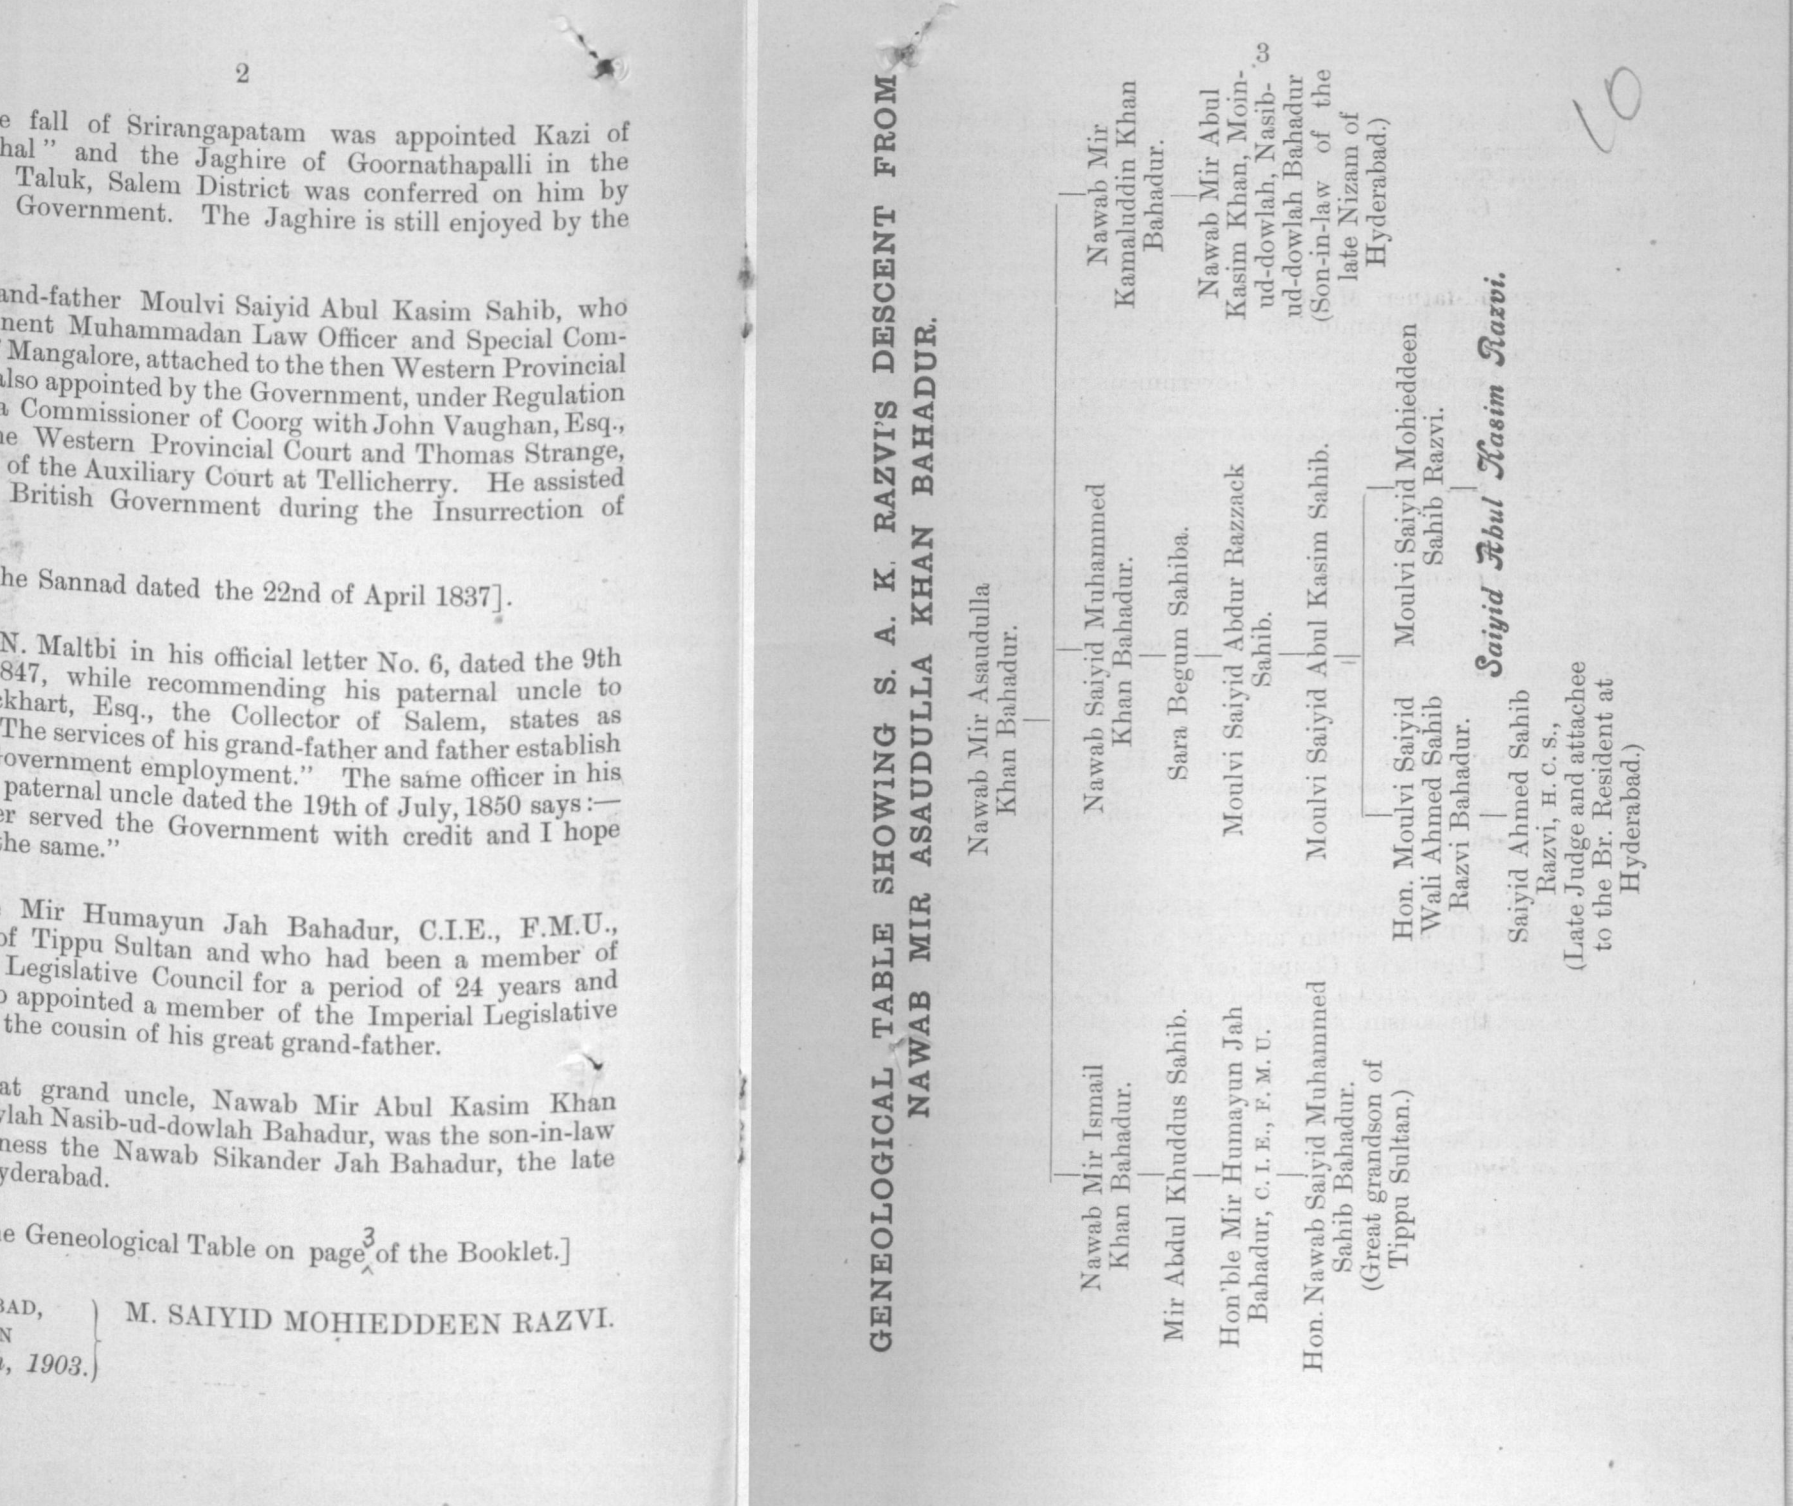

His great grand uncle, Nawab Mir Abul Kasim Khan Moin-ud-dowlah Nasib-ud-dowlah Bahadur, was the son-in-law of His Highness the Nawab Sikander Jah Bahadur, the late Nizam of Hyderabad.

FINDLAY COLLEGE,
MANNARGUDI, TANJORE DISTRICT,
November 18th, 1903.

S. A. K. RAZVI was a student in the Senior F. A. Class of this College during the year 1901, during which time I came into close contact with him not only as a student but at my house and on the Tennis Court.

He is a young man of exceptional parts, very gentlemanly, self-reliant, full of resource and fond of out-door games and sport. I believe him to be of good sound character.

Since leaving here he has been a student of the Christian College, Madras and I have frequently heard of him, corresponded with him and seen him. He has maintained the reputation he had while here.

He is a young man for whom I entertain a strong personal regard.

Madras Christian College,
9th January 1903.

S. A. K. Razvi was a student of the Senior F. A. Class last year, and attended my class in Mathematics. In the class-room he showed much diligence in his work and his weekly home exercises too were extremely satisfactory. As for his character and conduct, they are exceptionally good and I have formed a very high opinion of him.

(Signed) S. RANGIA CHETTY, B. A.,
Asst. Professor of Mathematics and Superintendent of Vernacular Studies.

St. Peter's College,
Tanjore, November 24th, 1903.

S. A. K. Razvi was a student of this College for over a period of 2 years and was reading in the Senior F. A. Class when he left. He is a young man of high intelligence and of studious habits. He belongs to a very high family in the Nizam's Dominions. As regards his character I must say and have great pleasure in saying he was a "model" student, ever amiable and willing and courteous so much so that he was loved by every one at College both Professors and students. In short he was a gentleman every inch of him. Nothing will give me greater pleasure than to hear that he had obtained a very responsible post.

Professor.

Findlay College,
Mannargudi, January 22nd, 1902.

S. A. K. Razvi was a student in the F. A. Senior Class of this College in 1901. During this short period of a year he was able to impress me with his tidy and active habits, thorough trustworthiness, perfect manners and general abilities, which were much above the average.

He was greatly interested in the Literary Societies and Athletic Clubs of the College and took a very active part in their working.

MADRAS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE,
MADRAS, January 6th 1903.

MY DEAR RAZVI,

I believe you are in every way fitted for the Police Service, but as I have an acquaintance with you that does not extend over six months you could not expect any formal certificate from me. I wish you all success, and shall ever be glad to hear of your doings.

Yours very sincerely,

Principal.

K. H. SCHOOL,
TANJORE, Jan. 30th, 1901.

RAZVI, S. A. K. was a pupil of the Sixth Form of this institution in 1898. I found him an earnest student of very brilliant parts. He passed the Matriculation Examination held in December of the same year. He belongs to a very respectable family. His conduct has been throughout very gentlemanly and quite in keeping with the respectability of his birth.

An extract of the letter from SAIYID ALI SHUSTRI to COL. R. NEVILL, C. I. E., Commander-in-Chief of the Hyderabad Regular Forces.

MY DEAR SIR,

I beg to state that JANAB SAIYID ABUL KASIM RAZVI, son of Moulvi Saiyid Mohieddin Sahib Razvi is one belonging to the sect of Saiyids of high and noble lineage; he has some distant connection with His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad. He has his English Education as far as the Matriculation Standard while as regards Persian and Urdu he may be said to have had an advanced education.

He also seems to have had a practice in the arts a Military Officer is supposed to know and he is rather efficient in riding and archery. Further he seems to have a great liking to acquire a knowledge of Military discipline. His qualification and merits being such, there is nothing, I think, that can go against his becoming an Officer, and I, therefore strongly recommend him to your favour for the post of an Officer, say a Lieutenant, whenever the first vacancy should happen to occur.

Lastly I beg to state that in view of the old acquaintance, I sincerely hope that you will favour the Saiyid with the appointment above referred to after examining him. His success will place me under a debt of your gratitude.

Yours Sincerely,

(Signed) SAIYID ALI SHUSTRI,

Tutor to H. H. the Nizam.
