Vacation Classes.

Approving the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction to institute a series of -- in the Teachers' College, Saidapet, for the benefit of teachers in Training schools.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 786, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
30TH NOVEMBER 1905.

[SUBJECT.—Vacation Classes.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 9th November 1905, R. C. No. 8723.

The Director of Public Instruction proposes to institute this year also a series of vacation classes in the Teachers' College, Saidapet, for the benefit of teachers in training schools who did not attend the lectures of 1904.

There is a provision of Rs. 2,000 for this purpose in the current year's budget under 22-F. EDUCATION (Training Schools for Masters).

For orders as to whether the proposals may be approved.

K.K.M.—11-11-05.

There will be eleven lectures this year of whom eight will be connected with the Educational Department and three will be from outside. Of these three, however one—K. Ranga Chari of the Government Museum—is in Government service. These three men will receive Rs. 120 each for a course of twelve lectures. In other respects also the arrangements sanctioned in G.O., No. 717, Educational, dated 8th December 1904, will hold good.

From (Name) The Hon'ble A.G. Bourne, D.Sc., F.R.S.,

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction,

M a d r a s.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for instituting a series of vacation classes in the Teachers' College, Saidapet for the benefit of teachers in Training Schools, similar to the classes held last year.

2. Mr. Fraithwaite, the ag. Inspector of Training Schools recommends that the classes be held this year for the benefit of those teachers who did not attend the lectures of 1904. In so doing he writes as follows on the advantages derived by those who attended on the last occasion.

" I need hardly mention that the last Christmas lectures were extremely popular and their benefits were highly appreciated by the masters who attended them. Moreover, the lectures greatly helped

efficiently. Several of the ^{who attended the} also appeared for the Government Technical examinations this year and passed creditably. On the whole, it must be admitted that the lectures have indirectly contributed not a little to the improvement in the general tone of the Training Schools and its wholesome influence on the masters cannot be overrated."

I have no doubt as to their utility.

3. The subjects on which it is proposed to have lectures delivered and the persons selected to deliver them are given below:--

(1) Elementary Physiology as applied to education--

Mr. P.P. Eraithwaite.

(2) Physics and Chemistry--M.R.Ry. S.K. Subramania Aiyar, M.A.,

L.T., (National High School, Trichinopoly)

(3) Zoology and Animal Physiology--M.R.Ry. K.P. Ukkandan Unni

Nair, M.A., (Victoria College, Palghat).

(4) Botany--M.R.Ry. K. Rangachariar, M.A., L.T., (Government Museum, Madras).

(5) Kindergarten--Miss Gillingham.

(6) Horticulture--The agricultural instructors, in the Training Schools, Calicut, Chittoor, Kurnool and Ongole.

(7) Black Board Drawing---The Drawing masters employed in the Teachers' College and the Panchama and Muhammadan ^{Branch} Training Schools.

4. It is proposed to remunerate the three lecturers who are not connected with the Educational Department at Rs 120 for a course of 12 lectures.

5. In all other respects, the classes will be worked on the lines adopted last year.

6. The necessary provision exists in the current year's budget.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. N. S. W.

For Director of Public Instruction.
