M. Chenna Razu age 33 Lower Secondary Examination.	Matriculation and Permanent Writing Test.	Clerk.	Rs 15.	Permanently.	The clerk has already been temporarily exempted by the Board of Revenue in its Proceedings No 2213/Routine dated 1-9-04 till 31-12-05. Prior to it, it was made exempted in B.P. No 2000/Routine dated 3-8-03 for one year.	In the Hosur Taluk it is difficult to obtain passed men.	Backward knowledge of Telugu is essential in a clerk entrusted with the duty of a Special fund clerk. These reasons and the prevalence of plague in Hosur since 1898 make it impossible to get suitable men with the necessary examination qualifications and knowledge of Telugu for clerks place in the Taluk office. Within the last four years I have been in charge of this Taluk, numerous vacancies have had to be filled up by unpassed men or matriculates without handwriting test. Since temporary appointments are found very detrimental to the efficient discharge of public duties inas- much as the clerks have no sustained interest in the work. For some time after I joined, the Special fund work in particular was in an unsatisfactory state owing to such constant temporary appointments and in order to put the work on a satisfactory basis I had to obtain special exemption for the applicant on two different occasions (Vide E.P., Nos 2213/Routine dated 1-9-04 and 2000/Routine dated 3rd August 1903). I must say to the credit of the applicant that in such a large taluk as Hosur consisting of 113 kurnams 355 village munsiffs, 359 Talayaris, 359 Vetties, 45 Cattle pounds, and 21 Estate karnams paid from Government, he has on the whole acquitted himself very creditably. The applicant is a well behaved and obedient young man and is quite attentive to his duties. He has sufficient knowledge of English to be able to do the work of a Taluk gumastah and I strongly recommend him for permanent exemption for a Taluk gumastah's place on Rs 15 for which he is by experience fully qualified.
