I agree if the Secy. finds it essential & I will leave this matter to him

Now that the Legve. Dept has been strengthened by the permanent addition of a clerk on R50, it seems doubtful if any special clerk is necessary for the work in connection with the Landed Estate Bill - There will be no other business connected with the Legve. Council till January. Will A.S. & D. Reg. please Let me leave them over in the matter. We have to get out the revised "Rules and Orders" but revision of Acts might lie over till April.

18.xi.05

At present the work in the Educational and Legislative Departt is not very pressing except in connection with the Estates Land Bill. The Legislative Clerk has heavy work in connection with that Bill and it seems desirable to set him free for the purpose. ~~It~~ may then be considered whether it will be necessary to fill up his place. Much depends on the new man we are going to get. Submitted therefore that the Special appointment may be created at once and ~~that~~ the question of filling up the ~~perma~~ temporary vacancy caused by the transfer of the Legislative clerk to Special duty may lie over for the present.

I agree. 21.11.5

The above seems the best course. The time of this clerk is taken up almost exclusively in connection with the Bill, and he has to work at all hours. His work is of a special nature. The full pay of the appointment should be given.
