TO

The Honorable the Chief Justice AND
The Judges of the High Court of Judicature at Madras.

THROUGH

THE DISTRICT JUDGE,
SALEM.

*The humble petition of S. VENKATARAMANA
IYER, Head Clerk, District Munsif's Court,

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH :—

The petitioner entered in the Public Service as 8th Clerk of the Tirupatur District Munsif's Court so long ago as 15th June 1882 and has now put in a service of over 23 years.

2. The petitioner has passed the Middle School Examination in the 1st Class and the University Matriculation Examination besides the departmental Special Tests of Civil Lower and Criminal Lower and Translation Lower.

3. The petitioner in the various capacities in which he served from time to time gave satisfaction to his superiors in the discharge of his duties. He has been Head Clerk of a District Munsif's Court for over seven years now and is thoroughly experienced in official correspondence and other matters.

4. Both by the virtue of the Examinations passed and by length of service and experience gained in the Department, the petitioner feels that he is competent to hold the higher posts in the District Court. He is however afraid that when opportunities for promotion may occur, his claims may be overlooked, in as much as he has not passed the Precis-Writing Test which under the rules now in force is necessary for all appointments carrying a salary of Rs. 60 and upwards.

5. The petitioner has applied once or twice for the Precis-Writing Examination about 10 years ago but failed. He did not then feel it necessary for him to complete that test and therefore he did not continue to apply and pass the Examination.

6. The petitioner is now 47 years of age and at this stage of his life when his service extends over a period of 23 years and when he has only a few more years for him to retire, he respectfully begs to submit that it will be a hardship for him to be asked to pass the Precis-Writing Test to qualify himself for higher promotion (his salary now being Rs. 50 per mensem).

7. The petitioner herewith begs to submit copies of his testimonials to show his character in general, capacity for work and ability to discharge the duties pertaining to a higher sphere.

8. Exemption from passing special tests have also been granted in two instances one in South Malabar and the other in the Godavari District. The former is one Mr. A.K.V. Choyi, Record-keeper whose case is the same in all respects with that of the petitioner and he was exempted from passing the very same Precis-Writing Test, the latter is the case of a Central Nazir at Godavari from passing the Civil Lower grade. These are entered in the list of Establishments in the Judicial Department of this Presidency as stood on 31st March 1905 (pages 141 and 106 respectively).

9. The petitioner therefore most respectfully prays that the High Court may be graciously pleased to recommend him to Government, as a special case, for exemption from passing the Precis-Writing Test.

For which act of kindness the petitioner will ever feel grateful.

Shankar unavalu

Petitioner.

Head-Master.

Venkataramana Iyer was first appointed as a clerk of this Court in 1882 and was lately promoted to the post of Examiner when the pay of that office was raised to Rs. 17. As a clerk and as an Examiner he discharged his duties very satisfactorily and proved himself very useful to the Court. He is an industrious public servant and I have formed a good opinion of him.

TIRUPATUR,
10th February 1889.

S. Venkataramana Iyer, Examiner, District Munsif's Court is an young man of excellent character. He has been doing his work to my entire satisfaction. He deserves promotion and I am confident that he will give satisfaction to his superiors as a ministerial officer of a District Munsif's Court or District Court.

(Signed) T. T. RANGACHARIAR,
District Munsif.

S. Venkataramana Iyer, 3rd Clerk has been in charge of the small cause side, and has done his work well. He is a quiet and uninterfering man, regular in attendance and in his work. I have a high opinion of him and his character.

Extracts from the office note left by M. R. Ry. T. B. Vasudeva Sastriar Avl., the late District Munsif of Tirupatur.

As I am about to hand over charge of this Court over which I have presided for the last 3½ years I wish to place on record my appreciation of the work of the officers of this Court. With very few exceptions, the establishment has worked well and willingly and has done its best to leave no arrears.

The late Head Clerk S. Venkataramana Iyer was an excellent officer and bore unblemished character. He has been promoted to a 50 Rs. place on my recommendation and I wish him further success.

TANJORE,
27th October 1905.

Mr. S. Venkataramana Iyer was Head Clerk of the District Munsif's Court at Namakal under me from June 1902 to June 1905 when I was transferred to Tanjore. I am glad to certify that he did his work very well. He is an intelligent, industrious and honest officer and deserves promotion to a higher post in the District Court.

To the Honble the Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature at Madras.
Honble Sir,

With reference to Mr. Hannay's letter no. 2859 of the 21st. ultimo, I am directed to state that H.E. the Governor in Council sees no sufficient reason to sanction the exemption from the Precis-writing test of S. Venkataramana Aiyar, Head clerk of the District Munsif's Court at Namakkal.
