The errata slip was issued to the Press and on the 5. L. P. enquiring whether the correction in para 120 of the report might be made. The Director will no doubt issue the usual erratum, but to make this sure he may perhaps be asked to make the correction in the report itself as it has not yet been finally struck off. He was requested to consult the Secy to Govt, Edw Dept. It is not known what further action he has taken.

With reference to my letter C.No. 9384 of 05, dated 17th November 1905 and my reply to your telephonic message of the 22nd idem, I issued an erratum slip to paragraph 120 of the Public Instruction Report for 1904-05, but the Superintendent, Government Press, enquires whether instead of printing an erratum slip the correction can be made in the Report itself, as he has the type still standing. He awaits instructions.
