Dated 8th December 1895
To the Chief Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

1st grade Sub-Inspector and has been As. Head Clerk of the Assistant Commissioner's Office, Masulipatam Sub-division for the last 3 years. He is 44 years of age and has passed the old general Test Examination and several Departmental Tests. He has put in about 20 years service in this Department exclusive of about 5 years' service rendered in the Registration and other and other Departments. He appeared for the Precis Writing Test July last but his application was rejected by the Commissioner for the U.C.S. examination on the ground that he is not eligible to appear for it having passed only the old General Test. Both the Assistant Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner recommend his permanent exemption. An application in the prescribed form is enclosed.
