Most Respected Sir,

I am permanent 2nd class
Revenue Inspector on Rs 35 and Subpostum 1st class Revenue Inspector on Rs 40 vice Mr. P.V. Krishnasami Rao on other duty as Land Records Revenue Inspector in the Bellary District. I have put in over ten years' Service — about two years in the Civil Judicial Department as clerk in the Madurai District Court and the remaining years in the Revenue Department as clerk in the Hosur Sub Collector's office and as Revenue Inspector.

5-4
I was made permanent Revenue Inspector on 4-7-02. During my service I have done my best to do duty to the entire satisfaction of my superiors. my present age is about 31.

The Special Test Examination rule debarring Matriculates to appear for the Criminal Judicial Tests was passed while I was in service and while I had no interval of even a year to appear for the Criminal Test after I passed the other Special Tests.

As for my present qualifications, I have passed the Matriculation examination and passed my Middle School examination in the first class with the Special Tests Revenue Test - Lower, Account Test - Lower and Precise-writing

Test and Survey training. I know how to read, write and interpret three vernacular languages viz. Tamil Telugu & Canarese. I have gone through the 7. A Course at College but after failing to pass in one year as I entered public service I did not appear again.

Considering my present appointment which involves daily travelling and my present qualifications I most humbly beg to request that I may be recommended for exemption for three years to appear for the Criminal Test - Lower to complete my eligibility for higher service ^{and} ~~to~~ better my prospects.

I beg to remain,
most Respected Sir,
Your most obedient servant
C. Srinivasan
