Despatch—from the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
To—the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India.
Dated—Fort St. George, the 23rd December 1905.
No.—9.

In confirming our telegram of the 22nd instant, a copy of which is appended, we have the honour to state that Mr. J. B. Bilderbeck of the Indian Educational Service, who is now on furlough extending up to the 30th of May 1906, attains his 55th year of age and will in ordinary course retire from service on that date. We beg to request that you will be so good as to select and send out a suitable person to fill the vacancy in the Indian Educational Service, that will be caused by Mr. Bilderbeck's retirement. Mr. Bilderbeck was professor of English in the Madras Presidency College. We would wish his successor to be not a specialist in mathematics or any of the natural sciences, but a graduate in the classical, history or English literature school of one of the British Universities with, preferably, sound experience as a teacher or inspector of schools, whom we could employ either as a professor of English or History or as an inspecting officer. He should arrive in Madras on the 1st of June 1906 or as soon as possible after that date.

The midsummer vacation began on the 15th May 1905, page 5 of the Presidency College calendar for 1905. A. GALLETTI—30-11-05.

Please put up the later correspondence about raising the pay of Vice-Principal, Teachers' College to Rs. 500—50—1,000.

H. D. TAYLOR—30-11-05.

Please see G.O., Nos. 620, 621, Educational, dated 13th September 1905. The telegram to the Secretary of State regarding Mr. Yates has also been added to the file —G.O., No. 783, Educational, dated 28th November 1905.

P. T. THARYAN—30-11-05.

A. GALLETTI—30-11-05.

In our letter to India No. 326, dated 17th May 1905, we asked for an addition of two appointments to the cadre of the Indian Educational Service to provide for additional inspectors' posts. We also suggested that Mr. Braithwaite should be given one of these posts. India thereupon asked whether we would accept the suggestion to raise the pay of the Vice-Principal, Teachers' College to Rs. 500—50—1,000, and this proposal was accepted (G.O., Nos. 620, 621, Educational, dated 13th September 1905).

2. If these proposals be sanctioned there will be three vacancies on Rs. 500—50—1,000 to fill up in the Indian Educational Service, one of which will be held by Mr. Braithwaite and one by Mr. Yates, if appointed. The Secretary of State will have to appoint a third. On the other hand the appointment of Principal, College of Agriculture, held by Mr. Keess will be struck off the cadre, and it is proposed, not to make any provision for a fresh appointment for Mr. Keess, but to retire him on compensation pension.

3. Mr. Bilderbeck is due to retire on 30th May 1906 under the 55 years' rule unless any extension of service is specially granted. If it is not proposed to grant him any extension, it will be necessary to give the Secretary of State timely notice for the appointment of another officer in his place; that officer should arrive at the close of the vacation in 1906 or by the end of June.

4. Mr. Bilderbeck's demi-official of 9th May 1905 is indefinite. He has not sent in any application to retire, neither has he applied for any extension of service.

5. Secretary of State's despatch No. 141 of 22nd October 1905 may be awaited; we shall then be in position to make a complete reference.

H. D. TAYLOR—1-12-05.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 1st December 1905, R. C. No. 9504.

Mr. Bilderbeck attains his 55th year on the 30th May 1906. The Director of Public Instruction says that he has had no intimation from him of his willingness to retire at the end of his furlough. In G.O., R. No. 148, Educational, dated 21st March 1905, Mr. Bilderbeck was granted furlough for 10 months and 13 days in continuation of the midsummer vacation of the Presidency College. The College reopened on the 17th July last and Mr. Bilderbeck's leave will therefore end on the 30th May 1906, the day on which he will attain his 55th year.

The Director of Public Instruction submits this case for orders with reference to G.O., No. 181, Educational, dated 15th March 1904, regarding the timely intimation to be given to the Secretary of State of vacancies in the Indian Educational Service.

K.K.M.—7-12-05.

These papers may be kept over till the despatch of the Secretary of State regarding two new inspectors is received.

P. T. THARYAN—7-12-05.

A. GALLETTI—8-12-05.

The despatch has been received and a draft order communicating its substance to the Director of Public Instruction is separately submitted.

P. T. THARYAN—11-12-05.

A. GALLETTI—11-12-05.

As Mr. Bilderbeck has not intimated his intention of applying for a further extension of service it may be presumed that he does not intend to make any special application, and the Secretary of State may be asked to appoint a successor. Or should this lie over until definite orders are passed in the case of Mr. Keess, whom it is proposed to retire compulsorily.

H. D. TAYLOR—12-12-05.

It is understood that Mr. Bilderbeck retires in ordinary course on completing his 55th year. There is no need to wait for any communication from him.

Nor is it necessary to delay a representation to the Secretary of State, or complicate the matter with Mr. Keess's case.

G. S. F[ORBES]—14-12-05.

Please draft despatch to Secretary of State, together with cablegram which may go in advance for the appointment of an officer to the Indian Educational Service, in place of Mr. Bilderbeck, from 1st June 1906.

H. D. TAYLOR—14-12-05.

The draft placed below is submitted for approval. It is stated there that the person selected to succeed Mr. Bilderbeck should arrive in Madras on the 1st of June 1906 or as soon as possible after that date. The midsummer vacation of the Presidency College will, however, last till about the middle of July and it will be enough if the selected candidate arrives by the beginning of July at the earliest.

2. The following telegram is also submitted for approval:—

P. T. THARYAN—14-12-05.

It may be convenient to employ the new man as an inspector? Dr. Bourne thought Mr. Yates would make a better headmaster than inspector. Anyway he ought to be fit either for teaching or inspecting. Drafts submitted.
