[P. T. O. FOR PUT UP PAPERS.]

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that C. Krishnaswami Naidu, a compositor of the District Press, Madura, on Rs. 12/- has put in a service of more than 19 years in the Press Department and has done his work satisfactorily. He has studied up to the late Middle school class, but did not pass any examination. Under rule 3 of the District Press Manual, he is not eligible for appointments carrying a salary of Rs. 15 and more, which should be given only to those who have passed Upper Secondary or Matriculation examination. In Government Order No. 534 Educational dated 17th September 1897, the Government was pleased to exempt the compositors in the Government Press, Madras, from examination rules. When a vacancy occurs in the District Press office, great difficulty is experienced in finding trained men who are passed candidates. On the analogy of the Government Order referred to above, C. Krishnaswami Naidu requests that he may be exempted from examination rules, in order to qualify him for appointments carrying a salary of Rs. 15 and more. I beg to recommend that the petitioner's request may be complied with on the analogy of the Government order quoted by him.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. S. S. S. S.

For Ag. Collector.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 30 From the Collector of Madura No. 4430, dated 2nd January 1906.

SUBJECT: Exemption from the examination rules.

All and without limit?

H.D.T.

Submitted that under go. no. 534 Educational, dated 17th September 1897 all appointments, except those of clerks, in the Composing, the Press and Machine, and the Binding departments in the Government Press, Madras, are excluded from the operation of the examination rules & no limit is ~~laid~~ laid down as to the salary to be drawn by the unpassed men employed in these departments. But the exemption does not apply to compositors in the District Press as they are not Govt. servants but are paid on the piece work system. Please see page 12 of the C.B.E. for 1905-06. 2. The question now for consideration is whether the recommendation of the Collector of Madura that C. Krishnaswami Naidu, a compositor on Rs. 12 in the Madura District Press, may be exempted from passing the Upper Secondary Examination for promotion to posts on Rs. 15 and upwards - should be accepted. It is, however, submitted that similar exemptions have been recently granted in the case of a compositor in the District Press, Tirunelveli ^(for promotion up to Rs 20) and in the case of a compositor in the South Arcot District Press ^(for promotion up to Rs 15) vide go. no. 675 Educational, dated 14th October 1905 and no. 682 Educational, dated 24th October 1905 respectively.

See.

The exemption may be granted up to 20/- per month. 5/1/06

The case at Haba is very difficult.

In the present case the Coll. La has shown that there is any vacancy was existing, or that it is impossible to obtain qualified here. Gov. cannot deal with any such general application on this. The Coll. on account of temporary up to months, but before the applicant can be accepted for present post there must be a permanent vacancy which the Coll. not be satisfied, after actual effort that he cannot longer fill.
