The 13th January 1906.

W. S. MARRIS,
Dy. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

ENCLOSURE.

Despatch—from the Government of India, Finance Department (Salaries, Establishments, etc.—Education).
To—His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.
Dated—Calcutta, the 23rd November 1905.
No.—388.

We have the honour to refer to the correspondence ending with Lord George Hamilton's despatch No. 6 (Public Works), dated the 1st March 1901, intimating the appointment of Mr. J. Webster to the post of instructor in mechanical engineering in the College of Engineering, Madras.

2. Mr. Webster was engaged for a term of five years on a pay of Rs. 350 a month without exchange compensation allowance. His agreement will terminate on the 30th January 1906, and he is disinclined to continue in his present appointment unless his pay is raised. The Government of Madras are unwilling to lose his services and they recommend that, subject to the conditions mentioned in paragraph 4 of their letter of the 22nd August last (a copy of which is enclosed), he should be re-engaged for a further term of five years on a pay of Rs. 450 a month.

3. Having regard to the opinion expressed in paragraph 2 of the note by Sir Alexander Rendel, a copy of which accompanied Lord George Hamilton's despatch No. 61, Public (Educational), dated the 17th May 1900, and to the fact that the pay of the technical instructor in the Thomason Engineering College, Roorkee, has been raised to Rs. 400—20—500, we do not consider the increased rate of pay proposed for Mr. Webster to be excessive. We accordingly support the proposal of the Government of Madras and recommend it for your sanction.

Order—No. 38, Educational, dated 20th January 1906.

With reference to his endorsement N. R. O. C. No. 4077, dated 7th August 1905, submitting letter from Mr. J. Webster, Instructor in Mechanical Engineering in the College of Engineering, Madras, in regard to the latter's retention in service after the expiry of his present engagement, the Director of Public Instruction is informed that the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India has been pleased to sanction the proposal of the Madras Government that Mr. Webster should be re-engaged for a further term of five years on a pay of Rs. 450 a month from the 30th January 1906 on the old conditions and subject to the further condition that in the event of his having to take leave the arrangement will terminate.

2. The Director should now submit a re-appropriation statement for meeting the extra charge in the current year.
