Application for exemption from Examination Rules on behalf of B. Narasimma Raju, 4" ag. clerk, Hosur Sub Collector's office, Salem district.

Name, age and educational qualifications of the nominee.	Examination or examinations in respect of which exemption is sought.	The post in which it is proposed to employ him and the nature of the appointment i.e., whether acting or sub. pro tem.	Pay of the appointment and rate of monthly allowance which it is proposed to give the candidate.	The period for which the appointment is to last.	The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination).	Is this a first application or one for renewal of a previous sanction? In the latter case quote the order of sanction, referring to the previous Board's Proceedings, if the exemption was sanctioned by the Board; and state for how long the candidate has been already exempted.	Is no passed candidate available, and what steps have been taken to procure one?	Recommendation.	Remarks.

B. Narasimma Raju 46. Nil × 5" Clerk, Sub Collector's office on Rs 20.	Matriculation Handwriting & Dictation tests.	4" Clerk, Sub Collector's office, permanent.	Rs 25	„	Permanent	First application.		He was drawing 28 Rs exclusive of Pensionary Contribution in the Rayakota Estate as Manager. He was Manager for about 10 years. When this appointment ceased he was offered Rs 25 appointment in Komaramangalam Estate but as it was distant from Hosur he was unable to take up the appointment. He is now × Record Clerk of the office and has been doing good sound work. All Record Clerks in Taluks are on Rs 25. Until this man joined the office the records were in charge of a clerk on 40 Rs as the 40 Rs man then in office was not so useful otherwise. In consideration of his long service and as it is but fair that the record clerk in the Sub Division Hazur office should be equally paid as the Taluk Record Clerk and as a Telugu knowing clerk is very necessary for the Record Clerk B. Narasimma Raju is proposed to be promoted to 25 Rs place which is now vacant in this office. He knows English & Telugu and write a Copper plate hand of which the present is a specimen; and his qualifications are good except that he has not passed any examination. I have a year's experience of his work and would most strongly recommend that Sanction of Government may be obtained for his permanent exemption for the Rs 25 appointment in the Sub Collector's office. He is the only non brahmin clerk working in this office and his case deserves the most favorable treatment which you can give it.	Rep. No. 3526 Endorsement Submitted to Government (Educational Department) for orders. 2. In the circumstances stated by the Sub-Collector, it is recommended that B. Narasimma Razu may be exempted from the examination rules and his appointment as a clerk on Rs 25 may be sanctioned. He has put in over 20 years service. Salem Collector's Office, January 1906. C. No. 61, From the Collector of Salem, No. 35264/F. Dated 8-1-1906.

SUBJECT. Permanent exemption from Examination rules.

On the strong recommendation of the Sub. Collector, Hosur, the ~~[illegible]~~ Collector of Salem applies for the exemption from the Examination rules ~~[illegible]~~ ~~application~~ of B. Narasimma Raju ~~for~~ for promotion ~~permanent exemption from Examination rules~~ ~~for~~ to the post of 4th clerk on Rs 25 in the ~~above~~ Sub Collector's office. The grounds ~~of~~ for exemption are 1) He has put in over 20 years' service and knows Telugu (2) He has been doing good ~~clerk~~ work as record clerk of the subcollector's office.

A somewhat common case; but the exemption asked for is not very much.

C.

It is stated that he has had 20 years service but no information is given as to whether he has been previously exempted and what permanent post if any he holds. This is just one of those cases in which Dt. officers are so insistent and in which exemptions have to be carefully guarded against.

He is said to be 'Record' clerk — pay not stated, or previous exemption if any. He had service in Estate service

R25 is a large limit for an unpassed man. The only grounds are (a) that he knows Telugu (b) that he is a non-brahmin.

The Collector does not state that efforts have been made & failed to secure a qualified man for the post. In these circs. the exemption applied for may with the concurrence of Revenue be refused. There might be grounds to exempt him for post on R15/- but no more.

The man was apparently permanent on 20/-. Col. 5 of the application says "5th Clerk Sub-Colr's Office on Rs 20". Col. 9 says he was on foreign service paying pensionary contribution. Could temporary or of. clerks do this?

for R25/-
Very well exempt him - but let it be a record that he is not to get further promotion on these grounds unless it is clearly proved that passed men are not available

NOTE FOR THE A.S.

With reference to the last sentence of the Secretary's note please see column 1 of the application.

The man appears to be already a permanent clerk on Rs 20. He got this appointment apparently before the Public Service notification came into force in 1894. [illegible] His services were lent to the Court of Wards for a long time.
