From (Name) C.G. Kuppuswami Iyer Esq., B.A. & B.L.,

(Designation) Ag. District Judge.

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

In submitting herewith a memorial addressed to His Excellency the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George, Madras, from C. Ramaswami Naidu, at present a Copyist in the District Munsif's Court of Ranipet, I have the honour to state that the prayer of the memorialist is twofold, viz., (1) that he may be exempted from the Examination rules so as to enable him to hold a permanent appointment the pay of which is at least ₹20 and (2) that his past services from 1st November 1887 to 1st December 1898 or, more correctly, to 20th September 1898 and his services as a copyist (if the same be admissible) from April 1899 be treated as qualifying for pension. As regards the first part of his prayer, the grounds

He cannot be recommended for pension

urged by him are that he is a son of the late Mr. C.Thiruvengadaswami Naidu, who was Headmaster for a long time of the Zillah School at Chittoor and whose services appear to have been specially recognized by the Government; and that owing to the death of his father in 1876, which was followed by that of his uncle C. Govindu Naidu in 1883, he was unable to prosecute his studies beyond the standard of the (late) Middle School Examination which he managed to pass in 1884; and that he has earned the good opinion of his superiors as a Process-writer, --- ag. Clerk and copyist, and very favourable remarks in a judgment of the High Court as Receiver of the Gudipati Polliem Estate. In consideration of the above circumstances I beg to recommend that he may be exempted as prayed by him.

is. No. of the file

2. I cannot, however, recommend the other part of the memorialist's prayer. The case of the memorialist is one of deliberate resignation of, and not of interruption in, service; and under article 418 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations, resignation of the public service entails forfeiture of past service. His service register shows that he was, on 1st November 1887, appointed as an Amin on Rs 12 in the District Munsif's Court of Vellore and was transferred in the same capacity on 3rd
May 1888 to Chittoor Court, and that he resigned the Amin's post on 20th September 1898. During the last five years of his service from 1st November 1887 to 20th September 1898 he was on leave without allowances presumably as he was employed as Receiver of the Gudipati Polliem Estate. His subsequent services as a Copyist do not, of course, qualify for pension.

To His Excellency
THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL, of Fort Saint George,
MADRAS.

The humble memorial of C. Ramaswami Nayudu lately Process Writer in Chittoor Munsifs' Court and now copyist in Ranipet, District Munsifs Court, North Arcot District:

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

I. That your Memorialist belongs to a respectable family, being the eldest son of the late C. Teruvengadaswami Naidu, the distinguished Head-Master of the Zillah School, Chittoor for a long period of 20 years and whose meritorious services were duly recognised and appreciated by the Government in their Pro. No. 440 ; dated, 20th November, 1876 vide Exhibit A.

II. That the said C. Teruvengadaswami Naidu having died in March 1876, his brother C. Govindu Naidu was supporting your Memorialist, his brothers and other dependants for some time and he also died in March 1883 leaving your Memorialist, his brothers and others in a helpless state, as would appear from a printed copy of an Appeal for help made to the distinguished pupils of late C. Teruvengadaswami Naidu, holding high positions in the service of Government vide Exhibit B.

III. That your Memorialist had thus to suffer in several ways by various calamities in his big family and in consequence he was unable to prosecute his studies, as the son of a distinguished educationist ought to do. But he had however passed the Middle School examination in 1884 and was employed in the District Court at Chittoor as Acting Clerk on Rs. 15 and permanently as an Amin (Process Writer) on Rs. 12 for about seven years from 1886 to 1893 and as a Receiver of Gudipati Polliem Estate on Rs. 25 for more than five years i.e. from September 1893 to December 1898 under the management of the District Court (in execution of a Decree in O. S. No. 5 of 1890) and at last he was suddenly thrown out of employ, as the Estate was transferred to the management of the creditor of the Estate under the orders of the High Court in Letters Patent Appeal No. 13 of 1898 and to the great misfortune of your Memorialist he had to give up his lien on the permanent appointment as Process Writer in Chittoor District Munsifs' Court on the strong basis of the Judgment of the High Court in Civil Miscellaneous Appeal No. 188 of 1897 and as the salary of Rs. 25 I was getting as Receiver of Gudipati Polliem Estate was more attractive.

IV. That there upon your Memorialist had to apply to the High Court for restoring him to his former appointment as a Process Writer in Chittoor District. Munsif's Court and he was favoured with a Proceedings of the High Court, dated 8th December 1898 No. 2019 referring his application to the District Judge, North Arcot for disposal (vide Exhibit C.) Thereupon the then District Judge was pleased to appoint your Memorialist as Acting Clerk on Rs. 15 in Chittoor District Munsif's Court for three months in 1899 and confirmed him as copyist, as there was no Amin's place vacant then and that ever since i.e. from the year 1886 he has been continuing in the employment. Subsequently your Memorialist has received an endorsement from the District Court of North Arcot dated 25th April 1900 directing him to apply for an Amin's place that may fall vacant in any of the Munsif's Courts in the District (vide Exhibit D) but your Memorialist was not able to know of any vacancy in time and he was not fortunate enough to get an Amin's place.

V. That your memorialist put in a service of more than 18 years and has earned the good opinion of one and all of his superiors in the discharge of his duty (vide Exhibits E, F, G.). Your memorialist begs to refer in this connection to the Judgment of the High Court in Civil Miscellaneous Appendix No. 188 of 1898 dated 13th April 1898 which contains very favorable remarks in appreciation of the Meritorious services rendered by your memorialist in managing the Estate of Gupati Polliam as Receiver efficiently and satisfactorily. The opening passage in the above Judgment runs as follows:— "From an examination of the annual gross and net income of the Estate I find that the net income available for payment to the Appellant (Judgment creditor) has tended to increase very considerably under the management of the present Receiver and he refers to other sources of income which he is taking steps to develop."**

VI. That your memorialist begs to implore Your Excellency to be pleased to take into consideration the above circumstances as a special case which deserves Your Excellency's sympathy and to grant him the gracious favor of exempting him from the examination rules (as per G. O. No. 524 dated 21st July 1894 Educational) so that he may be given a permanent appointment of at least 20 Rs. as a first grade Amin or as a clerk in any one of the District Munsif's Courts of this District and also to treat his past services as qualifying for pension.

For this act of kindness and mercy your memorialists shall, as in duty bound ever pray.

C. Ramaswami Naidu.

Honoured Sir,

In obedience to the District Court order no. 2615 dated 24th December 1905 I most respectfully beg to state as follows

(1). I was an Ag. clerk in the District Court of North Arcot on Rs 15 for six months from 1st March 1887 to 30th August 87

(2). I was made permanent Amin on Rs 12. in Vellore District Munsif's Court on 1st November 1887 and was transferred to Chittoor Munsif's Court as per orders of the District Court dated 10th May 1888 and I had been working as an Amin (Process Writer) from 1st November 1887 to 19th September 1893.

(3). I was appointed by the District Court of North Arcot as Receiver of Gupati Polliam Estate at Chittoor on Rs 25 and has been working as Receiver from 20th September 1893 to 1st December 1898.

(4) I was an A/c Clerk on Rs 15 in Chittur District Munsif's Court from 3rd January 1899 to 3rd April 1899 and appointed as a permanent Copyist in Arni Munsif's Court and transferred to Ranipet District Munsif's Court and since been working as Copyist from April 1899.

(5) I had to resign the Amini's appointment considering that the office of Receivership would continue on the strong basis of the judgment of the High Court in Civil Miscellaneous Appeal no. 188 of 1898 and as the salary of a Receiver was Rs 25 which was attractive

(6) My present age is 39 years and 9 months

(7) I beg to submit that no separate copy of the judgment in Civil Miscellaneous Appeal no. 188 of 1898 has been given to me but simply the Judgment was sent to me for reference and was taken back by the District Court.

8. I pray that my services from 1st November 1887 to 1st December 1898 and my subsequent services as Copyist if the same is admissible, may be treated as qualifying for pension.

I beg to remain.

AN APPEAL

TO THE STUDENTS OF

The late Mr. Teruvengadasami Naidu.

"HONOR WHERE HONOR IS DUE."

1. THE undersigned, in submitting this appeal do not feel themselves pledged to offer an apology to those whom these lines are intended to meet, when the subject of this appeal stands revealed. It is a name that is cherished with feelings of love, affection, and gratitude, and which stands enshrined in our hearts and engraved in characters never to be effaced. What Dr. Arnold was to Rugby, and Eyre B. Powell to Madras, so is the name of Mr. Teruvengadasami Naidu (the late Headmaster of the Chittoor High School) to us. Which one of us that have known this kind and genial preceptor and moulder of our then young minds, does not feel his heart all aglow with reverence and respectful affection, when the memory of his name recalls such pleasing remembrances of the past. Such a man cannot fail to command our admiration and esteem. It would be quite superfluous to state that he was one who laboured and toiled with all the energy of his mind, and earnestness of his heart, in the profession which he loved as his peculiar vocation. Fame marks him as one of the most successful Educationists of his time, and we who have received our first rudiments of knowledge from him, cannot speak too highly of his superior intellectual attainments,—attainments which, if employed in more lucrative walks of life, would have placed him in the foremost rank in life, and established him in independence and competence. Did he care for any such advantages?

He recked little for them. The school alone was his sole charm and delight, and the success and prosperity of his pupils was his sole recompense and reward.

2. How many a poor lad struggling under the heavy weight of misfortune, and dire distress of poverty, has he not raised with his loving hands, and rescued by his generous benefactions and parental solicitude. What would some of us have been, but for the disinterested aid rendered to us at a time of our greatest need, and what again would we have been, had not our character been so well grounded on the solid basis of moral rectitude by his precept, his teaching, and example. How often did he not in the stirring tones of his eloquent voice, point out to us the great heroes of old as models for us. Are we not therefore now bound to him by special gratitude and friendship, and by the tie which knits us together into one brotherhood. Though his fame may soon grow dim with Time, the arbiter of all events, his name will be held by us all in grateful remembrance for his devotion, and his earnest, sincere, and zealous attachment to his pupils.

3. We now appeal to them for advice and help, and ask them whether it does not behove us as his old pupils to perpetuate his name in some suitable manner by instituting scholarships or prizes in connection with the Chittoor High School, the scene of his most successful and useful career.

4. It is also necessary that we should extend our help to his destitute children whom his sudden and premature death left in a state of absolute poverty and misery. They have borne the burden of their long suffering in silence, and any measures for their relief and amelioration that we may concert, will be in conformity with the dictates of both duty and charity.

5. We have thrown out these suggestions for the consideration of the subscribers. The extent to which we can adopt these proposals, and the mode in which they can be acted upon, will be determined mainly by the amount of the collections. Students of the Chittoor High School are found scattered far and wide in the Presidency. We feel ourselves bound to submit this appeal to all of them as far as possible, with a view to afford them an opportunity of contributing their mite towards this laudable undertaking, and thereby testifying to their affectionate regard for their revered teacher, whose earnest and disinterested labour in the cause of education has borne such good fruit, and has promoted to no small extent, the advancement of their mental, moral and material prosperity.

6. Due publicity will be given in the Local papers of the Subscribers and the amounts subscribed and paid. The subscription may be paid in six monthly instalments.

NOTES.

C. No. 114, From the High Court, R.O.C., No. 1266, Dated 29th January 1906.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

pp 5-6 of the ct file

In his memorial to Government, dated 20th December 1905, L. Ramaswami Nayar, copyist, District Munsiff's Court Ranipet, North Arcot Dt., states that he passed the Middle school Examination in 1884, was subsequently employed as an acting clerk on Rs 15 in the Dt. Court for 6 months, then as permanent Amrin on Rs 12 for about seven years (1887-1893). He was for 5 years from 1893 to 1898, the receiver of the Judipatipollicem Estate on Rs 25. From 1898 he has been a copyist in a District Munsiff's Court.

2. He prays (1) that he may be exempted from the examination rules, so as to enable him to hold an appointment, the pay of which is at least Rs 20 and (2) that his past services may be treated as qualifying for pension.
3. The grounds for the exemption sought for are that (i) his father's services as head master of the Tikkal School, Chittoor, were specially meritorious — go. no 440 Edl, dated 20th November 1876, and (ii) he earned the good opinion of his superiors in the discharge of his duties.
4. In submitting the memorial, the Dt. Judge recommends that the first of these requests may be he granted and the second rejected as he deliberately resigned the service of government in 1898 and his subsequent service as copyist is nonpensionable, but the High Court in forwarding it, makes no recommendation. Orders are obdicated.

There appears to be no special grounds for exemption.
