Letter—from H. D. TAYLOR, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
To—the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.
Dated—Fort St. George, the 22nd February 1906.
No.—107, Educational.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Marris' letter No. 53 (Education), dated the 5th instant, regarding the career of the Government of India scholars from Madras after their return to India. In reply I am to append a complete list of all the scholars from Madras up to date and to state that out of the seven scholars shown in this list, two are still pursuing their studies in England, while three have entered the Indian Civil Service. Of the remaining two Mr. Cheruvari Krishnan was till recently practising as a Barrister at the bar of the High Court of Madras and is now acting temporarily as a Judge of the Presidency Court of Small Causes, Madras. Mr. William Hensman, owing to ill-health, has not been able to take up any employment.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 106, 107, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 22ND FEBRUARY 1906.

[SUBJECT.—Employment of Government of India scholars after their return to India.]

From the Government of India, Home Department, dated 5th February 1906, No. 53.

From the statement of the careers in England of the Government of India scholars, which is attached to the Government of India's letter read above, it will be seen that the following are the scholars from the Madras Presidency :—

(1) Mr. R. Narayana Aiyar.
(2) Mr. W. A. Hensman.
(3) Mr. C. Ramalinga Reddi.
(4) Mr. A. T. Rajan.

No. (1) has entered the Indian Civil Service and the Government of India require no information about him. Nos. (3) and (4) are still in England. Therefore the only person about whom information is required is Mr. Hensman. From paragraph 2 of the letter of the Registrar of the Madras University on page 1 of G.O., No. 333, Educational, dated 10th June 1899, it will be seen that Mr. W. A. Hensman is the son of Mr. E. S. Hensman of the Accountant-General's office. For orders as to whether the information required by the Government of India may be obtained from the latter.

N.L.R—10-2-06.

[Mr. W. A. Hensman's illness has prevented him from seeking employment. He is alive but still unwell and unemployed.]

P. T. THARYAN—12-2-06.

Looking at the letter from the Government of India again, a doubt has arisen whether the Government of India want information about all the Madras scholars since the institution of the scholarships in 1886 or only about the scholars mentioned in the list furnished by the Government of India. Before Mr. Narayanan there were three scholars from Madras—Messrs. C. Krishnan, D'Souza and Cammiade. Mr. Krishnan is now in the Madras Small Cause Court, while Messrs. D'Souza and Cammiade are, it is believed, in the Indian Civil Service in the north.

In what capacity ?
H. D. TAYLOR.

As Judge, it is submitted.
P. T. THARYAN.

P. T. THARYAN—12-2-06.

C. A. SOUTER—12-2-06.

The India List (page 455) shows Mr. P. E. Cammiade, I.C.S., as Assistant Commissioner, Assam, and Mr. F. X. DeSouza (page 480), I.C.S., as Second Assistant, Bombay.

Please note further as to Mr. Krishnan. I cannot find his name in the History of Services. We had better give India a complete reply.

H. D. TAYLOR—13-2-06.

Mr. C. Krishnan was practising in the High Court, Madras, as a Barrister when he was appointed in the Gazette of the 23rd January 1906, Part I, page 103, to act as Third Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Madras. The vacancy in which he was appointed to act has now become permanent by the death of Mr. Jambulingam Mudaliyar, Judge of the City Civil Court, for whom a Judge of the Small Cause Court was appointed to act.
