The Secretary to Government,

Sir,

B

In G.O. No.666 Educational, dated 20-10-1898 K.Rama Rao, an unpassed man, was exempted from the examination rules with a view to his appointment as a clerk on Rs.15 at Piler. He was thereupon appointed as 2nd Clerk, Piler Deputy Tahsildar's Office on Rs.15, and continued there till transferred to Kadiri. The Treasury Deputy Collector objected to passing the clerk's pay on the ground that the order, exempting him from the examination Rules, applies to his appointment at Piler and not at other stations. The transfer was found advisable on public grounds in as much as he had been many years at Piler. I request that Government will be pleased to sanction his exemption without restriction as to station or appointment.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

C. No. 134, From the Collector of Cuddapah, No. 203/Rev, Dated 27th January 1906.

SUBJECT. Exemption from the examination rules

B. In their order no. 666 mis, dated 20th October 1898, Government sanctioned the exemption of K. Ramarao from the examination rules as a clerk on Rs 15 at Piler in the Cuddapah District.

p.2 of the c. file 2. The Collector now reports that K. Ramarao was transferred to Kadiri and that the Treasury Deputy Collector objected to passing the clerk's pay on the ground that the order of exemption applied to his appointment at Piler only and not at other stations. As the transfer was effected on public grounds, the Collector requests sanction for his exemption without restriction as to station or appointment. Orders are solicited.

p.18 of G.O. no 666 mis B 3. ~~It is however observed that~~ The ground on which the permanent exemption of K. Rama Rao from the examination rules was recommended by Mr Harding, the then Collector of Cuddapah, was that Piler was a very unhealthy place and that it was difficult to secure the services of ~~passed~~ qualified men. The Collector may now probably come up for the exemption of another man for Piler.

What are any personal grounds for exempting him?

[illegible] 7/2/06

The only personal ground that Rama Rao was found equal to the work required of him. Piler was a very unhealthy place & no qualified men could be got.

I would refuse.

Cal

Certainly - with the concurrence of Revenue. He was specially exempted for service in an unhealthy locality. If he is transferred elsewhere he must be reduced to a post below Rs 15.

What will happen to the man if exemption is refused? What pay will he get for the time he has been at Kadiri

To Under Secretary.

It does not appear that Rama Rao held any appointment at the time he was appointed to the place on Rs 15 in Piler and granted permanent exemption. He will therefore have to be thrown out of employ or reduced to a post below Rs 15 if he cannot be sent back to Piler.

Even if exemption should be refused, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, he shd. ~~may~~ be regarded as having been ~~so~~ temporarily exempted for the period he was at Kadiri, as otherwise he may not be able to draw any pay. ~~He is exempted,~~ ~~he may draw pay according as the~~ ~~vacancy~~ ~~to which~~ ~~which he was appointed~~ ~~was temporary or permanent~~

G.O. 666 d. 20.10.98 presumably meant that Gov. sanctioned the entertainment of K. Rama Rao, (though unpassed) in a permanent R15 vacancy in the office of the Dep. Tahsildar, Piler – The Coll. has since thought it advisable to question a change –

If his permanent appointment at Kadiri is not to be sanctioned, the proper course seems to be to tell the Collector that he must keep Rama Rao as permanent on R15 in Piler – ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ The man can hardly be chucked out, or degraded –

The question is whether it is advisable in the circumstances to refuse to sanction his permanent appointment at Kadiri.

B Mr. Harding's Lr. d. 13 Sept. 1898 shows that he did not intend the exemption to relate only to Piler, for he spoke of the difficulty of securing competent men "in almost all the offices in the Dt.", & the whole letter except the last 2 sentences applied to the Dt. as a whole, & the Ed. Note at A hardly brings out correctly the reasons wh. the Collr. urged for his proposal. It is probable that the Rev. Order of exemption was not intended to be limited to the Piler office. It is obviously very inconvenient to be unable to move a clerk fr. one office to another, & it is better. I submit to make the exemption apply to the Dt. or perhaps to the Subdivn., if Ed. thinks the Dt. too large an area. To keep a Ck all his service in one office is objectionable.

Very well - exempt him for the Dt: It is to be hoped however that the Coll will not transfer the man to Madanapalle or other favourite taluq.
