Station Madras, Dated the 16 February 1906

From (Name) W. Dobbie Esq.,

(Designation) Accountant-General.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 61, dated 2nd February 1906, permitting Mr. R. Ganapathi Aiyar, Asstt.
Lecturer of the Law College, to undertake the Sub-Editorship of the Madras Law Journal on a remuneration of Rs. 75 per mensem, I have the honour respectfully to bring to the notice of Government that the Government of India have, in their order communicated in G.O. No. 808 Finl. Dept., dated 17th December 1904, ruled that Article 74(c) of the Civil Service Regulations, under which apparently the permission has been granted, relates only to single payments, and that a recurring payment requires the sanction of the Government of India, if the salary of the recipient exceeds

exceeds Rs.250 a month or would be raised by the payment in question above that figure.

2. M.R.Ry. Ganapathi Aiyar receives from Government a salary of Rs.250 per mensem which will be raised to more than that amount by his remuneration as Sub-Editor.

3. In these circumstances I have respectfully to request that the sanction of the Government of India may be obtained for the retention by M.R.Ry. Ganapathi Aiyar of the remuneration of Rs.75 per mensem in addition to his fixed pay of Rs.250 per mensem, unless in view of the permission granted for private practice in G.O.No.681, dated 21st November 1901, he is considered not to be a whole time officer.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

B. Dobbie.

Accountant-General.

SUBJECT.

Acceptance by M.R. P. R. Ganapati Aiyar
1st Asst. Professor in the Madras Law College & the Sub Editorship of the Madras Law Journal on a monthly remuneration of Rs. 75.

The question was fully considered. He is not a whole time officer.

Please see the Hon'ble Mr. Forbes's note of the 6th January 1906 on page 11 and the notes of the Financial Department on pages 12 and 13 of the notes in go. no. 61 Educational, dated 2nd February 1906. The Hon'ble Member noted that as under go. no. 681 Educational, dated 21st November 1901
M.R. Ganapati Aiyar was allowed to take private practice he was not a full time public servant and that no reference to the Government of India seemed necessary.
The Financial Department also expressed the same opinion.

2. For orders as to whether the Accountant General may be informed that as in go. no. 681, Educational, dated 21st November 1901, M.R. Ganapati Aiyar has been granted permission to accept private practice he is considered not to be a whole time officer and that therefore the sanction of the Government of India is not necessary to his undertaking the Sub Editorship of the Madras Law Journal on a remuneration of Rs. 75 per mensem.
