C. No. 237 From the K. Rakeshpati Gaudan, No. , dated 14-2-1906.

Head Clerk, Chief Forest Office,
Tanjore

SUBJECT.
Application for a State Technical Scholarship.

In his letter to His Excellency the Governor the Honble Siraswami aiyar proposed to limit the selection of candidates for State Technical Scholarships to those who have passed the First-in-Arts Examination. This letter which was circulated to the Honble Mr. Forbes on the 10th inst. has not yet returned.

2. For orders as to whether the present applicant may be informed that as he does not possess sufficient knowledge of English his application for a State Technical Scholarship cannot be entertained. A similar reply is proposed in the case of one A. Kumaraswami Pillai of Trichinopoly who is an applicant for a State Technical Scholarship and who possesses the same educational qualifications. This file is now with the Secretary.

20/2/06

Perhaps in the present case we may say that the State Technical Scholarships are not intended for those who, like the applicant, have not previously studied the industry in connection with which they want scholarships - please see page 2 of

This is the point.
