From
Charles M' Bhaktul
& Robert P. M' Bhaktul Esq., Chittivalsah Jute Mill,
Bimlipatam.

Respected Sir,

Seeing the Gazette Notification regarding Indian Government Technical Scholars in England,
I beg to offer myself as a candidate for a scholarship and promise to abide by the rules thereof.

I am a Native Christian of the Viragapatam District. My late father who held the office of Superintendent, Chittivalsah Jute Mill, is succeeded by my brother. I underwent complete course for the B.A. degree examination taking Physical Science for my optional branch and passed the Telugu Division. I taught Science in the High School department of the Ongole College. I passed also the Hand-writing and Dictation Test, the Government Elementary Examination in Free-hand Outline Drawing, the Agriculture Examination conducted at the Saidapet Teachers' College by Mr R. Y. Srinivasarao, an assistant of the Saidapet College of Agriculture.

I beg to attach to this, copies of testimonials.

I beg to remain,
Respected Sir,

Yours obedient servant,
19th Feb. '06.

Charles M' Bhaktul

Madras Christian College,
Madras, 26th Jan. 1903.

Charles M' Bhaktul has been known to me for several years both as a student in the College and as a teacher of some classes in our school department. He is a young man of fair ability and excellent character. I should expect him to be found faithful in the discharge of any duties with which he may be entrusted.

Ag. Principal.

(2) A copy

A. B. M. College, Ongole,
9th Jan. 1906.

Mr. Charles M' Bhaktul has been a teacher in this Institution for the past three years, including one year spent at the Teachers' College, Saidapet, undergoing training. He is a good teacher, and his classes are orderly, and make good progress. He has been attentive to his work, and respectful to his superiors, and always ready to assist in any way he could in the work of the College. I trust he may be able to accomplish much good in the new position to which he is going at Ellore. I am ready to commend him to any one in need of his services.
