The Government of Madras

From
G. Rameswara Rao B.A.

Honoured Sir,

Being given to understand that foreign scholarships are given to students who go up for industrial education, I beg to offer myself as a candidate for those scholarships. I am a graduate of the Madras University, my optional subject being physical science in which I took a high second class in 1904. I propose to study industrial chemistry pencil making and glass making.

I am sure I can give you all possible satisfaction if you should think me worthy of one of the Scholarships.

Hoping to be favoured,

I am
Honoured Sir,
Your obedient servant
James L. L.
