'28' Old Fishmonger's Street. Trichinopoly.

Most honored and respected Sir,

On the receipt of the reply from the Major Principal of the Veterinary College Madras to my application herewith attached, thinking that the District Collector has the authority to sanction exemption from certain qualifications to enter the said College as a candidate I requested the Collector of Trichinopoly to the said effect, but his honor ordered me to apply direct to your honor.

As I have noted in the adjoined application, being the son of a retired poor Muhamadan Headconstable who has offered up his best and unblemished services for about 30 years and discharged the function of an Inspector in the Police Deptt. for about 3 years during his said services, means being too scanty to permit me to prosecute my studies any further so much so that I am forced to seek some line which may enable me to help my poor father in maintaining

Honoured Sir,

I, your honour's humble petitioner beg to submit the following to your honour's kind and generous consideration with the belief that the boon herein solicited may meet with a favourable reception and the undue encroachment, this may occasion on your honour's valuable leisure may be excused.

Being given to understand that candidates are being selected for this school, I beg to offer myself as one for the same.

After passing the Lower Secondary Examination I prosecuted my studies up to and in the Matriculation class, but owing to the circumstances most adverse, which are the offsprings of my being the son of a retired poor Muhammadan Head-Constable, I was obliged much against my will to give up my studies and driven to seek means to maintain the livelihood.

Besides as I have much liking to have a knowledge of the diseases of the animals and their remedy, I beg your honour to show indulgence in gratifying my desire thereby give me an occasion to earn for my bread.

Further, I promise to fare well with my studies at the school and with the work offered to me when employed so as to satisfy my superiors.
