Respected Sir

Having a natural liking for Industrial Education
I was very glad to find a Government notification (dated 6th Feb. 06) about scholarships to Students who are willing to go to foreign parts to learn of Tanning and other Industries and I thought that this was a golden opportunity left open to me to direct my whole energy in that direction. Even when I was in the Matriculation class my mind was drawn to this subject when I visited Koo-thanalloor - a Mohammedan village in the Tanjore District, noted for its extensive trade in hides - and saw how these raw materials were made rough use of by the cobblers in those parts. Ever since that time I have taken several opportunities of going to these cobblers and conversing with them on the topic.

I have passed
the L. A. Examⁿ of this University (Physiology branch) and am now studying in the B. A. class taking Science for my subject. I am a Non-Brahman and a flesh-eater.

I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the Study of Tanjoring in Foreign Countries and to request you to kindly confer upon me one of the Scholarships promised to such students.

I beg to enclose herewith copies of character and

me by my professors, which I hope will convince you that I deserve the help I pray for.

I beg to remain,

D. Sa daswan joined the First Form in this institution in 1898. He was usually the first boy (or thereabout) in each form he passed through and has just passed the F. A. Examin the 8th year after joining the First Form.
Through out he has been either free or allowed to pay a nominal fee. He is a very poor boy

Son of a toll-gate keeper on Rs 5 with no other income as far as I know. The boy has helped him self by doing some private teaching of younger boys.

Being of an intelligent
