REVENUE DEPARTMENT

Sir,
Having seen the publication in the Fort St George gazette that the Government of India is kind enough to send students to England and America to receive industrial education I beg to request you to kindly accept me as a candidate for the same.

I will fulfil whatever you ask me to fulfil.

I have not worked in any industry nor am I working now. But I will work in any industry at any place you please if you order me to do so.

As for my qualifications I once appeared for the University Examination but, unfortunately as I fell ill at that time I was blucked and I am now stopping again. and I possess a sound knowledge of English and chemistry, and the education I am fond of receiving is in mining or tunnelling.

In conclusion I request you to kindly give me encouragement.

I beg to remain,
Sir,

Your most obedient & humble
Servant,

Bhagavatula Viswacudham.
