ABSTRACT.—Informing the Director of Public Instruction that the Government of India have decided for the purposes of the Travelling Allowance Rules that all inspectress shall be classified as first-class officers and that all female inspecting officers of lower rank than inspectresses, shall be classified as second-class officers.

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 11th December 1905.

No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 8323.

I have the honour to address Government on the subject of the travelling allowance admissible to female inspecting officers, under the Government of India orders communicated in G.O., No. 478, Educational, dated 12th July 1905. Whatever may have been the intention of these orders, they do not in any way alter the existing state of things in Madras, as under Appendix 18 of the Civil Service Regulations, the Inspectresses are already first-class officers and under article 1002 of the Civil Service Regulations, the Assistant and Sub-Assistant Inspectresses who all draw more than Rs. 100 are already officers of the second class. At the same time they, in common with the male inspecting officers of corresponding rank, do not receive the travelling allowance ordinarily admissible to officers of the first and second classes respectively, as under Appendix 25, item 93 of the Civil Service Regulations, Inspectresses receive daily allowance at the rate of Rs. 4 per day instead of Rs. 5, and under Appendix 22, item 70, the Sub-Assistant Inspectresses ordinarily receive a permanent allowance of Rs. 25 per mensem instead of the usual allowances of second-class officers. I beg to enquire whether the intention of the Government of India was not to place female inspecting officers on a better footing than at present, on account of the greater difficulty of travelling in their case and the greater expense they have to incur. Especially is this the case with the Sub-Assistant Inspectresses whose permanent travelling allowance means much less to them than the same allowance means to a Sub-Assistant Inspector. They have, for instance, often to put up in travellers' bungalows and pay a comparatively high rent in places where a male Sub-Assistant would put up in a native chattram or hotel at a small rent. Moreover, most Sub-Assistant Inspectors having only limited ranges keep bullock coaches, whereas the ranges of Sub-Assistant Inspectresses are too large for this. I beg therefore to request that a reference may be made to the Government of India, if necessary, and, if their intention in issuing the recent orders was as surmised above, to enquire whether these orders overrule the provisions of item 93, Appendix 25, of the Civil Service Regulations and entries Nos. 67, 69 and 70 of Appendix 22 of the Civil Service Regulations so far as female inspecting officers of this Province are concerned.

Order—No. 196, Educational, dated 16th March 1906.

The Director's attention will be drawn to Addenda and Corrigenda No. 160, dated 15th January 1906, to the Civil Service Regulations, and he will be informed that the orders of the Government of India communicated in G.O., No. 478, Educational, dated 12th July 1905, do not overrule the provisions of Appendices 22 and 25 of the Civil Service Regulations.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 196, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 16TH MARCH 1906.

[SUBJECT.—Interpretation of G.O., No. 478, Educational, dated 12th July 1905, in regard to the travelling allowance admissible to Female Inspecting officers.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 11th December 1905, No. 8323.

In their letter No. 444, dated 3rd July 1905, the Government of India informed this Government that they had decided G.O., No. 478, Educational, dated 12th July 1905. for the purposes of the travelling allowance rules—

- (a) that all Inspectresses whether of the Indian or the Provincial Educational Service should be classified as first-class officers; and
(b) that all female inspecting officers of lower rank than Inspectresses should be classified as second-class officers.

2. The above rules, however, do not effect any change in the existing system in the Madras Presidency; for under item No. 29 of appendix 18 of the Civil Service Regulations, Inspectresses of schools in the Madras Presidency are already first-class officers, while under article 1002 of the Civil Service Regulations, the Assistant and Sub-Assistant Inspectresses (officers of lower rank than Inspectresses) are second-class officers, as they draw more than Rs. 100 in this Presidency. The difficulty that now confronts the Director of Public Instruction and is the subject of his present enquiry is in regard to the travelling and daily allowances admissible to these officers. Under item No. 93 of appendix 25 of the Civil Service Regulations, Inspectresses of schools receive a daily allowance of Rs. 4 as Inspectors of Schools do, though under article 1063 (i) of the Civil Service Regulations, they would otherwise as first-class officers be entitled to a daily allowance of Rs. 5. As regards Assistant Inspectresses who are second-class officers, these now receive a fixed daily allowance of Rs. 3 in common with the Assistant Inspectors under item No. 94 of appendix 25 of the Civil Service Regulations. But if the provisions of article 1063 (ii) are applied, their daily allowance will be affected as shown below:—

	RS.	A.	P.
The pay of first Assistant-Inspectress is	250	0	0
The daily allowance admissible under article 1063 (ii) of the Civil Service Regulations at As. 4 for every Rs. 25 or fraction thereof	2	8	0
The pay of second and third Assistant Inspectresses is	200	0	0
The daily allowance admissible under article 1063 (ii) of the Civil Service Regulations	2	0	0

Thus if the provisions of article 1063 (ii) of the Civil Service Regulations are applied in the case of the Assistant Inspectresses, the first Assistant Inspectress will lose half a rupee in her daily allowance and the second and third Assistant Inspectresses a rupee.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The Director of Public Instruction's attention may now be drawn to the Addenda and Corrigenda No. 160, dated the 15th January 1906, to the Civil Service Regulations, and he may be informed that the orders of the Government of India in G.O., No. 478, Educational, dated 12th July 1905, do not overrule the provisions of item 93 of appendix 25 and of items 67, 69 and 70 of appendix 22 of the Civil Service Regulations. I have the honour to address Government on the subject of the travelling allowance admissible to female inspecting officers, under the Government of India orders communicated in G.O. No. 478, Educational, dated 12th July 1905. Whatever may have been the intention of these orders, they do not in any way alter the existing state of things in Madras, as under

Inspectresses who all draw more than Rs. 100 - are already officers the travelling allowance ordinarily admissible to officers of the first and second classes respectively, as under Appendix 25 item 93 of the Civil Service Regulations Inspectresses receive daily allowance at the rate of Rs. 4 per day instead of Rs. 5, and under appendix 22 item 70 the Sub-Assistant Inspectresses ordinarily receive a permanent allowance of Rs. 25 per mensem instead of the usual allowance of 2nd class officers. I beg to enquire whether the intention of the Government of India was not to place female inspecting officers on a better footing than at present, on account of the greater difficulty of travelling in their case and the greater expense they have to incur. Especially is this the case with the Sub-Assistant Inspectresses whose permanent travelling allowance means much less to them than the same allowance means to a Sub-Assistant Inspector. They have, for instance, often to put up in travellers' bungalows and pay a comparatively high rent in places where a male Sub-Assistant would put up in a native chattram or hotel at a small rent. Moreover, most Sub-Assistant Inspectors having only limited ranges keep bullock coaches, whereas the ranges of Sub-Assistant Inspectresses are too large for this. I beg therefore to request that a reference may be made to the Government of India, if necessary and, if their intention in issuing the recent orders was as surmised above, to enquire whether these orders overrule the provisions of item 93 Appendix 25 of the Civil Service Regulations and entries Nos 67, 69, and 70 of Appendix 22 of the Civil Service Regulations so far as female inspecting officers of this Province are concerned.

I have the honour to be,

SUBJECT.

Interpretation of G.O. no. 478 of 12th July 1905 in regard to the travelling allowance admissible to female inspecting officers.

R
G.O. no. 478 of 12-7-05.

In their letter no. 444, dated 3rd July 1905, the Government of India informed ^(this Govt) that they ^{had} decided for the purposes of the travelling allowance rules -

(a) that all inspectresses whether of the Indian or the Provincial Educational Service should be classified as first class officers; and

(b) that all female inspecting officers of lower rank than inspectresses should be classified as second class officers.

2. The above rules, however, do not effect any change in the existing system in the Madras Presidency; for under item no. 29 of appendix 18 of the C.S.R. Inspectresses of Schools in the Madras Presidency are already first class officers, while under article 1002 of the C.S.R. the Assistant and Sub Assistant Inspectresses (officers of lower rank than Inspectresses) ^{are} second class ^{in this Presidency.} officers, and drawing more than Rs. 100. The difficulty that now confronts the D.P.D. and is the subject of his present enquiry is in regard to the ^{travelling & daily} allowances admissible to these officers. Under item no. 93 of appendix 25 ^{of the} C.S.R., Inspectresses of Schools receive a daily allowance of Rs. 4 as Inspectors of Schools ^{do} though under article

(would otherwise as first class officers be 1063(i) of the C.S.R. they are entitled to a daily allowance of Rs. 5. As regards Assistant Inspectresses who are Second class officers, these now receive a fixed daily allowance of Rs. 3 in common with the Assistant Inspectresses under item no. 94 of appendix 25 of the C.S.R. But if the provisions of article 1063(ii) are applied, their daily allowance will be affected as shown below: —

The pay of the 1st Assistant Inspectress is Rs. 250

The daily allowance admissible under article 1063(ii) of the C.S.R. at 4 annas for every Rs. 25 or fraction thereof — $\frac{10}{25} \times \frac{250}{164} = \text{Rs. } 2.80$

The pay of the 2nd and 3rd Assistant Inspectresses is — Rs. 200

The daily allowance admissible under article 1063(ii) of the C.S.R. — $\frac{52}{25} \times \frac{200}{164} = \text{Rs. } 2.00$

Thus if the provisions of article 1063(ii) of the C.S.R. are applied in the case of the Assistant Inspectresses, the 1st Assistant inspectress will lose 1/2 a rupee in her daily allowance the 2nd and 3rd inspectresses a rupee. ~~It is required that the 1st Assistant Inspectress should receive Rs. 250 and the 2nd and 3rd Assistant Inspectresses Rs. 200.~~

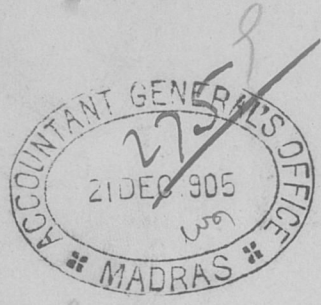

3. Under item no. 70 of appendix 22 of the C.S.R., the Sub-assistant Inspectresses, however, receive a fixed travelling allowance of Rs. 25 per mensem inclusive of the daily allowance also, as is the case with the Sub-assistant Inspectors. This allowance is increased to Rs. 50 when ~~the Sub-assistant, Walter Rajah, travels~~ the Sub-assistant, Combalu, travels in the Nilgiri district and in Malabar, South Canara and North Coimbatore ~~(vide footnote on page 92 of the C.S.R.)~~ (vide footnote on page 92 of the C.S.R.)

~~of the provisions of the C.S.R.~~ If, however, the provisions of article 1063 (ii) of the C.S.R. without the ^{limitations mentioned} ~~restrictions imposed~~ ^{are more applicable} in the appendices, the position of these Sub-assistant Inspectresses would appear to ~~be better~~ ^{be better} in regard to their travelling and daily allowances. The Director represents that the permanent allowance in the case of these officers means a hardship. He enquires if it was not the intention of the Govt. of India in issuing their recent orders to place female inspecting officers on a better footing than at present on account of the greater difficulty of ~~their~~ travelling in their case and the greater expense they have to incur.

3. ~~The Director enquires whether the instructions of the Govt. of India, 3. The instructions of the Govt. of India in issuing their recent orders~~ contained in G.O. no. 478 Educational, dated 12th July 1905 ~~to improve the position of the female inspecting officers, the Director enquires if these recent instructions are intended to override the provisions of item no. 93 of appendix 25 and items nos. 67, 69, and 70 of appendix 22 of the C.S.R. so far as the female inspecting~~ ^(it was apparently) officers of the Province are concerned as the intention of that Govt. to improve the position of these officers.

intended to supersede the entries referred to in Appendices 22 and 25 of the C.S. Regs. The issue of the order may be explained by the circumstances of other Provinces. For instance it is only Inspectresses of Schools in Madras, Bengal and the Punjab that the existing entry
No. 29 of appa. 18 of the C.S. Regs. declares to be officers of the 7th class. It may be also that the pay of Sub. Asst. Inspectresses in other Provinces than Madras does not exceed Rs 100/. There is nothing impossible or impracticable in the above view. In the absence, therefore, of any specific alteration of the entries in Appendices 22 and 25 of the C.S. Regs. it cannot be assumed that they are no longer in force.

I think it is doubtful whether the proposals of the Director are on the whole beneficial. As regards Asst. Inspectresses the Secretariat note shows that the change would be distinctly disadvantageous. As regards Sub. ^{Asst.} Inspectors the advantage is very doubtful especially when it is remembered that the provisions of Art. 1025 of the C.S.
Regs. have been made applicable by G.O. No.
491 Dtd. of the 28th June 1895 to Sub. Asst. Inspectors of Girls Schools. Generally a permanent travelling allowance is proposed by officers to a daily allowance as the latter is paid

From the Accountant General's note supra
it would appear that India's orders in G.O. no. 478 of 12th July 1905 were not intended to supersede the provisions in the appendices nos. 22 and 25 of the Civil Service Regulations. For orders as to whether the Director maybe informed accordingly or whether a reference should be made to the Govt. of India to clear the doubt.

The A.G. is apparently prepared to pass

of India in G.O. no. 478 of 12th July 1905 do not supersede the entries in appendices 22 + 25 of the C.S.R. No reference to India seems therefore necessary.

Must confer that I cannot see the object of the recent

The position of sub-art. Inspectresses is doubtful.

2. The order of India does not give any reasons. It does not state whether the order was issued to improve the position of the female inspecting staff, or to secure uniformity.

I think that India should be addressed and asked to make their intention clear with reference to the female inspecting officers whose cases are governed by ^{at present} Appendix 22 & 23.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

No 160

From the Addenda and Corrigenda to the Civil Service Regulations (~~1111~~) recently received from the Government of India, it is clear that the intention of India in issuing the orders contained in letter No: 444 dated the 3rd July 1905, was to modify only articles 1002 and appendix No: 18 (item 20) of the Civil Service Regulations. Inspectresses of girls Schools in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh draw from Rs. 80 to Rs. 200 and the Accountant General's opinion that India's orders may have been issued with the object of securing uniformity in all provinces in the matter of the classification of female inspecting Officers for purposes of travelling allowance seems to be correct so far as Inspectresses are concerned. It has not been possible to find out from lists and budgets available here whether any female inspecting officers of lower rank than Inspectresses draw salaries less than Rs. 100 in any province but apparently they do.

2. As appendices 22 and 25 of the Civil Service Regulations have not been altered by the Government of India, the case of female inspecting officers will have to be dealt with under the provisions of those appendices. There will therefore be no alteration in the existing rate of travelling allowances drawn by these officers.
