Sir,

Sub no 98-1
14-3-06

80 no 46-1
23-1-06

I come to understand that you are prepared to send some candidates to America or to London, on Government expenses, who are willing to study Chemistry pertaining to technical business & Leather curing and that you also undertake to pay them for two years at the rate of £150/- a year.

I request you to take me also for one among those whom you may have chosen fit for the above service.

I have passed the Lower Secondary Examination of Madras Government in the year 1901 and my registered number is 5876. I have studied up to the Matriculation class. It is now two years since I left India for Straits Settlements during which time I had been working as a Clerk and Store-keeper in the Medical Department for a year and am now serving the Government in the Railway Department as a Clerk in the Seremban, Accountant's branch for the last nine months. 2nd March 06. My age is 21 years and 10 months. I was born in Mayavaram Taluk Tanjore District in the year 1884 April.

Awaiting your early reply,

I beg to remain, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
J. S. Radnam

J. S. Radnam,
