G.O., No. 202, Educational, dated 19th March 1906.

Abstract.—Informing the Senate of the Madras University that as the revised body of regulations required under section 26 of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, cannot be sanctioned piecemeal, regulation 89 which provides for the election of the Syndicate cannot be approved separately, but that if it is essential that provision should be made for the immediate election of members of the Syndicate a specific regulation for that purpose might be framed under section 25 and brought into operation with the sanction of Government.

Letter—from C. A. Paterson, Esq., m.a., ll.b., Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 26th March 1906.
No.—892.

With reference to G.O., No. 202, Educational, dated the 19th instant, I have the honour by direction of the Syndicate to inform you that the Senate availing itself of the suggestion made by Government in the last sentence of the order has made the enclosed temporary regulations under section 25 of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, for the immediate election of the Syndicate, and I am accordingly to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to accord sanction thereto at a very early date.

Enclosure.

Regulations made by the Senate under section 25 of the Indian Universities Act, 1904.

1. The Syndicate under section 15 of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, shall consist of the Vice-Chancellor as Chairman, the Director of Public Instruction and ten elected members.

2. At least five of the elected members shall be Heads of, or Professors in, Colleges affiliated to the University.

3. As soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this regulation an election of ten members of the Syndicate shall be held in the manner hereinafter prescribed :—

The Registrar, under the direction of the Syndicate, shall publish a notice thereof in the Fort St. George Gazette, and shall, on or before the date of such publication, post to each member of the Senate a notice of the election. The notice shall draw attention to the requirement of the regulation that at least five of the members to be elected shall be Heads of, or Professors in, Colleges affiliated to the University.

The Syndicate as a body and each member of the Senate shall be at liberty to nominate any number of ex-officio or ordinary fellows, not exceeding ten, for election.

Every nomination shall be in writing and must reach the Registrar not later than eight days after the publication of the notice in the Gazette.

The Registrar shall post to each member of the Senate a list of the nominees, with the names of their respective nominators, together with a voting paper which shall bear on it the date of posting.

Every member of the Senate shall be at liberty to vote for any number of the nominees not exceeding ten.

Any paper in which the number voted for exceeds ten shall be treated as invalid.

The voting paper when filled up shall be returned to the Registrar in such manner as the Syndicate may direct with a view to secure the secrecy of the ballot and so as to reach the Registrar not later than ten days after the date of posting by him.

A Committee of two members of the Senate shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor for the scrutiny of the voting papers at a time and place to be fixed by him, and the Registrar shall post to each member of the Senate a notice thereof eight days before the date fixed for the scrutiny.

Every member of the Senate shall be at liberty to be present at the scrutiny.

The result of the scrutiny shall be certified to the Syndicate.

If any two or more nominees receive an equal number of votes the Vice-Chancellor shall have a second or casting vote in regard to each of such nominees.

The Registrar, under the direction of the Syndicate, shall post to every member of the Senate a notice stating the names of the ten nominees who have received the largest number of votes.

Should any six members of the Senate within eight days of the posting of the notice lodge with the Registrar an objection that the list of the ten nominees does not include five Heads of, or Professors in, Colleges affiliated to the University, a special meeting of the Senate shall be called to decide how far the objection is valid and which, if any, of the ten nominees is or are in consequence not eligible for election.

If the objection be allowed the Senate shall forthwith proceed to fill up the vacancy or vacancies by selecting one or more of the nominees as may be necessary in the order of the number of votes recorded for him or them who in the opinion of the majority of the Senate then voting may be qualified as a Head of, or Professor in, a College affiliated to the University.

If no objection be taken in the manner above provided, or if the objection taken be disallowed, the ten nominees who have received the largest number of votes shall be elected.

If an objection be allowed, the nominees against whom no objection has been allowed and the nominee or nominees selected by the Senate, as provided above, shall be elected.

If any question arise as to the procedure to be adopted in order to give effect to this regulation it shall be determined by the Vice-Chancellor.

The result of the election shall be announced in the Fort St. George Gazette and the election shall take effect from the date of announcement.

4. Any elected member who intends or expects to be absent from the meetings of the Syndicate for more than three consecutive months shall for that reason be under obligation to resign his seat.

5. Any elected member who has been absent from three consecutive meetings may be declared by the Syndicate to have vacated his seat but he shall be eligible for re-election.

6. Whenever a vacancy occurs among the elected members, the Registrar under the direction of the Syndicate shall publish a notice thereof in the Fort St. George Gazette and shall on or before the date of such publication post to each member of the Senate a notice of the vacancy.

The Syndicate as a body and each member of the Senate shall be at liberty to nominate a member of the Senate to fill the vacancy.

Every nomination shall be in writing and must reach the Registrar not later than ten days after the publication of the notice in the Gazette.

The Registrar shall post a list of the nominations to each member of the Senate together with a voting paper which shall bear on it the date of posting. The voting paper when filled up shall be returned to the Registrar in such manner as the Syndicate may direct with a view to secure the secrecy of the ballot and so as to reach the Registrar not later than ten days after the date of posting by him. A committee of two members of the Senate shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor for the scrutiny of the voting papers at a time and place to be fixed by him, and the Registrar shall post to each member of the Senate a notice thereof, ten days before the date fixed for the scrutiny. Every member of the Senate shall be at liberty to be present at the scrutiny. The nominee who receives the largest number of votes shall be elected. If any two or more nominees receive an equal number of votes the Vice-Chancellor shall in each such case, where necessary, have a second or casting vote. The result of the election shall be announced in the Fort St. George Gazette.

7. Should it appear to the Syndicate to be necessary in accordance with Regulation 2 that any vacancy should be filled by a Head of, or a Professor in, a College affiliated to the University, the Registrar shall draw attention to the matter in the notices of the vacancy and should any six members of the Senate within ten days of the announcement of the result of such election raise the question as to whether the person elected is eligible as aforesaid the Registrar shall post to each member of the Senate resident at the time within the territorial limits of the University a notice of the objection and a voting paper to enable him to vote on the question raised. The voting paper shall bear on it the date of posting and when filled up shall be returned so as to reach the Registrar not later than ten days after the date of posting by him. The result of such voting shall be scrutinized and declared by a committee of two members of the Senate appointed for the purpose by the Vice-Chancellor. In the event of the question being determined in the negative by a majority of the votes received or in case of equality of votes by the casting vote of the Vice-Chancellor, a fresh election from among the other nominees shall take place in a manner similar to that of the original election.

8. These regulations shall continue in force only until the promulgation of the revised body of regulations required by section 26 of the Act, and the Syndicate elected under these regulations shall vacate office as soon as a Syndicate shall have been elected under the revised body of regulations.

Order—No. 234, Educational, dated 30th March 1906.

The temporary regulations submitted by the Senate with the Registrar's letter read above are approved and sanctioned. They should come into force forthwith.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 234, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 30th MARCH 1906.

[Subject.—Temporary regulations under section 25 of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, for the immediate election of the Syndicate]

From the Registrar, Madras University, dated 26th March 1906, No. 892.

With the Registrar's letter No. 3305 of the 22nd December 1905 the Senate submitted 157 revised regulations under section 26 of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, and asked for time till 31st instant for submitting the remaining regulations. The Syndicate also requested that if there was likely to be any delay in according sanction to the regulations submitted, regulation 89 providing for a first election of the Syndicate under the Act might be sanctioned in advance as there were several vacancies in the Provisional Syndicate appointed under section 12 (p) of the Act and the election of a Syndicate under the Act could not be held until this regulation was sanctioned by Government.

G.O., No. 854, Educational, dated 29th December 1905.

In their Order No. 202, Educational, dated 19th March 1906, the Government informed the Senate that the revised body of regulations required by section 26 of the Act could not be submitted nor sanctioned piecemeal and suggested that if the Senate desired to hold an immediate election of the Syndicate a temporary regulation might be framed therefor under section 25 and brought into operation with the sanction of Government.

2. These temporary regulations are accordingly now submitted. Of the eight regulations sent in, regulations 1 to 7 are the same as regulations 87 to 89 and 91 to 94 forwarded with the Registrar's letter No. 3305, dated 22nd December 1905. These have been approved by the Honourable Member—vide orders in the notes connected with G.O., No. 221, Educational, dated 27th March 1906.

G.O., No. 854, Educational, dated 29th December 1905.

3. Regulation 8 now submitted is as follows:—

"8. These regulations shall continue in force only until the promulgation of the revised body of regulations required by section 26 of the Act, and the Syndicate elected under these regulations shall vacate office as soon as a Syndicate shall have been elected under the revised body of regulations."

This regulation corresponds to regulation 90 forwarded with the Registrar's letter quoted above. There appears to be no reason why the Syndicate elected under these temporary regulations "shall vacate "office as soon as a Syndicate shall have been elected under the revised body of regula- "tions" submitted under section 26 of the Act, but under the Advocate-General's opinion with G.O., No. 202, Educational, dated 19th March 1906, the Government can only accept or reject as a whole the regulations forwarded under section 25. It is submitted therefore that the whole of the eight regulations now forwarded may be approved at once.

I agree with you. It would be as long as it was broad. We could reject all because one particular regulation could not be approved and go on rejecting till they amended that regulation. It would be ridiculous to go through such a form when the University can be addressed with reference to the particular regulation which is objectionable.

G. S. F[ORBES].

I do not agree with the interpretation at "A". Government are not bound, as I interpret the opinion, to accept all or none of the regulations under section 25. They may treat each regulation separately and accept it or reject it. Thus they may accept some and reject others.

2. The only question is whether regulation 8 as worded is consistent with the Act—please see sections 12 (p) and 15 (c). A doubt arises as to whether period in 15 (c) should not be a specific term.

3. Section 21, General Clauses Act, India, would seem to confer the power to revoke a regulation once made, though the word "regulation" is not specifically used in that section.

H. D. TAYLOR—28-3-06.

The period is sufficiently definite I think since it is determinate, I mean ends on the happening of a specific event. There is no uncertainty. I see no sufficient reason to raise any question on regulation 8.

"Rule" or "bye-law" in section 21, General Clauses Act (India), includes a "regulation".

The regulations may be approved and sanctioned to come into force at once.
