Forwarded to Government in the Educational Department.
There is no audit objection to Mr. Bilderbeck being permitted to retire from the public service from the 30th May 1906, when he will have completed his 55th year. Vide Article 14 of the Civil Service Regulations. If Government sanction Mr. Bilderbeck's retirement with effect from the above date, the necessary verification of his service will be undertaken and a report of the pension admissible submitted to Government. In such case the application for pension should be returned to this office.
