Reference D. No. 81, dated 30th March 1906.

The Board submits for the orders of Government the accompanying application from the Collector of Guntur for the exemption of K. Ammanna, an unpassed man, from the examination rules for employment as an accountant on Rs.15 in his office.

2. The Board considers that in the circumstances reported by the Collector the exemption may be sanctioned as a very special case. The question of Ammanna's exemption from the twenty-five years' rule will be disposed of on receipt of the orders of Government on this reference.

Copy of letter from N. S. Brodie Esq., Collector of Guntur, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madars, R.C.No.131-B & G/Accts. of 1906, dated 10th March 1906:-

Under the orders of the Government of India embodied in Board's Proceedings No. 4129 Miscellaneous, dated 23rd November last, the work connected with the Military pension payments in this District has been entrusted to the Treasury Deputy Collector and the entertainment of an accountant on Rs.20 has been sanctioned with effect from 8th December last— Vide Government Order No. 168 Miscellaneous, dated 10th February 1906 embodied in Board's Proceedings 702 Miscellaneous, dated 19th February 1906. In filling up the vacancy, I propose giving K. Ammanna, who was attending to this work in the Paymaster's office at Masulipatam and whose services are being utilised in the Accounts Branch of my office ever since, an accountant's place on Rs.15 in consideration of his previous services under the Paymaster for about 15 years, as also of the fact that there is none in any of the Branches of my office who can be said to ^{be} conversant with the details of this work. The Superintendent, Family Pensions, Fort Saint George, intimated that as the clerk has been trained in the preparation of the Accounts and returns for nearly 15 years he may be confirmed as a special case, the necessary sanction being obtained for the exemption from the age limit and the examination rules. This clerk joined office here on the 5th December last and is reported to have been doing his work satisfactorily. While working under the Paymaster he was paid Rs.15 per mensem from the Paymaster's capitation allowance and it is proposed to continue to employ him on the same pay. He is now 40 years of age and has passed the ^{late} Middle School Examination in the 2nd class.

He represents that at this advanced age he cannot take to fresh walks in life and that he will be rendered completely helpless if his services be ordered to be dispensed with. Much difficulty is also felt in finding suitable and experienced men for such responsible work. Taking into consideration his previous previous experience and training I propose giving him an Accountant's place on Rs.15 permanently. I have the honour to request the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for exemption from examination rules, itself according sanction to exempt him from the age limit.
