NOTES.

C. No. 597 From the Legisla. High Court No. 83., dated 2-4-1906.

SUBJECT.

The High Court requests that V. Balakrishna Mudaliyar & A. Embarn Nayudu clerks in Rs 400 & 350 respectively, on the original side may be permitted to appear for the Precis writing test. As they have not passed the Matriculation exam. they cannot appear for the test unless they are specially permitted to do so - subject of the special test notification. D.

2. In G.O. no: 584 Edl, dated 21st September 1896, persons who on the 1st January 1897, held appointments carrying a salary of Rs 15 per mensem or upwards in the "Superior service" of Government and who on that date had passed either the General test examination or the Middle School examination in the first class, were allowed to appear for the Chief Revenue higher and Criminal higher as well as lower until 1st January 1902 Special test examinations during the next succeeding five years. V. Balakrishna Mudaliyar and A. Embarn Nayudu, 2nd & 3rd ~~clerks in the establishment on the original side of the High Court~~, have put in 18 years and 12 years service respectively. They have both passed the late Middle school examination in the first class and were therefore in a position to avail themselves of the privileges conferred by the above mentioned G.O. It is not stated, what attempt they made during this period to qualify themselves for promotion.

M 3. In G.O. no. 66 ST dated 11th February 1902, the Govt declined to extend the concession already granted in G.O. no. 584 ST dated 21st Sept 1896, to some clerks of the sea customs office, Madras. Submitted that there is nothing unusual or extraordinary in the present case to place it on the a different category. See plea of long service put forward by the High Court, lose much of its force when the circumstances related in para 1 are taken into consideration.

For orders as to whether the permission applied for, ~~may~~ be refused, should be granted.
